APPENDIX

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

To the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session at Henderson, N. C., the Board of Missions of said conference submits the following report:

Your Board of Missions has given intense and prayerful consideration to the work committed to it, and in this report offers some recommendations which we trust will stimulate interest in the program of missions in the church.

GENERAL WORK

We have heard with interest Dr. O. E. Goddard, the representative of the General Board of Missions to this conference. He brings to us a story of victory in all the fields of the church as our faithful missionaries have presented the claims of the Gospel of the Christ. In this we greatly rejoice. The quadrennium just closed has made some great missionary history. The finances of the board were recast and more than $1,000,000 indebtedness paid. When other churches were forced to retrench, we were able at least to sustain our work on the foreign field and make some advances in a few places. The four years of effort on the part of the Commission on Nationalism has resulted in the establishment of autonomous churches in Mexico, Brazil and Korea. The church gave in fine interest and loyalty in faith and money to this program. The missionary maintenance program brought into the treasury of the church more than $2,500,000. For all these things we give grateful thanks.

Legislation, by our General Conference at Dallas, Texas, reduced the apportionment for General Work by 7%. The askings for missions was reduced by $100,000. Instead of the $1,000,000 asked in the missionary maintenance program of the past quadrennium, there is apportioned to missions $900,000 in the Kingdom extension program. The importance of the success of this new program for our mission work is apparent. Since the direction of this new program is placed with the Commission on Benevolences, we wish to place all the resources of this board at the disposal of the said commission. The life of our work abroad hinges on the success of this new plan.

We earnestly recommend, that in view of decreased income from the above mentioned program, that wherever possible our pastors ask the churches to take specials in missions at home and in the foreign field. A communication addressed to Dr. E. H. Rawlings will give detailed information. The time has come and it is imperative that we sound the note of the world-wide mission of the Church of Jesus Christ.

HOME WORK

Perhaps the appeals to this board for aid have never been so urgent and the ability to meet these appeals so limited. The appropriations will necessarily be disappointing. The only way to increase these in the future is an awakened sense of responsibility on the part of pastors and laity to all the interests of the church. We would recommend a passionate presentation of these claims by all our pastors. Our responsibilities reach beyond the local church. We must not close our ears nor steel our hearts against the Macedonian call.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That Rev. W. V. McRae, Rev. F. S. Love and Rev. G. W. Perry be named a Committee on Evangelism, to co-operate with the Committee on Spiritual Life in the work of evangelization.

2. That Rev. W. V. McRae be asked to raise in our churches the sum of $400.00 for the support of a chaplain at Oteen.

3. That Rev. F. S. Love be appointed conference missionary secretary.

4. That Rev. W. V. McRae be named a member of the Board of Managers of Pastors' School to succeed F. S. Love.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education of the North Carolina Conference hereby announces that it held its last meeting Tuesday afternoon, November 18, and transacted such business as came before it and has transferred all books, minutes, etc., to the secretary of the Board of Christian Education.

Also the Board of Education announces that the treasurer has turned over to the treasurer of the Board of Christian Education the funds in its possession, both the general fund and the special educational loan fund.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. STANBURY, Chairman,
C. K. PROCTOR, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 1 OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

STUDENTS' LOAN FUND OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH

We recommend the following regulations governing the administration of the "North Carolina Conference Christian Education Loan Fund":

I. This shall be known as the Christian Students' Loan Fund of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

II. It is set up and exists for the purpose of aiding young men and women who are securing an education, and who purpose devoting their lives to full-time Christian service in this or some foreign country.

III. This fund is derived from annual assessments and appropriations by the North Carolina Annual Conference, and is to be administered under the following regulations and conditions:

1. Of the total receipts for this fund received from the treasurer of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year:

- a. Fifty per cent shall be placed in the hands of the treasurer of Duke University, Durham, N. C., to be used for the benefit of students in that institution.
- b. Twenty-five per cent shall be placed in the hands of the treasurer of Greensboro College, Greensboro, N. C., for the benefit of students in that institution.
- c. Twenty-five per cent shall be placed in the hands of the treasurer of Louisburg College, Louisburg, N. C., for the benefit of students in that institution.
- d. Provided that in the event there is a young woman from the territory of the North Carolina Conference attending Scarritt College and in need of assistance for her education, such funds as the president of the college and the Executive Committee of the Board of Christian Education deem wise may be lent to her for this purpose. This loan is to be deducted from the total receipts before the allotments described above are made.

2. These several allotments shall be held and dispensed by the treasurers of said institutions of learning for the benefit of such students as are eligible under the terms set forth in Paragraph II, unless said institutions should any or all of them cease to operate, or should desire to relinquish management of said funds, in which case, or upon request of the Board of Christian Education of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, said treasurers shall return all moneys belonging to said funds, together with all accumulated interest and all unpaid notes, to the treasurer of the Board of Christian Education of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

3. All loans must be secured by interest-bearing notes (at the rate of six per cent per annum) endorsed by at least one responsible person, and are due and payable within one year after the maker's graduation, or after the termination of his or her residence at the institution concerned. The treasurers of the several institutions are to use all proper means for the collection of all notes which have become due, but they are not held personally responsible to the Board of Christian Education herein referred to, in case of default or failure to pay by any maker, makers, or endorsers of a note.

4. Students desiring to receive aid from this fund or from the allotments to the several institutions named shall present testimonials as to their character and their prospective usefulness in their chosen fields, from the pastors and superintendents of the churches and Sunday schools to which they belong. Applications for loans must be approved by the president of the Board of Christian Education of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and by the president or dean of the college or of the university department in which the student is enrolled.

5. No loan exceeding $200 shall be made to any one student during any academic year.

6. The treasurers of the several institutions of learning shall, on October 1 of each year, render to the treasurer of the Board of Christian Education of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, an accurate account of all receipts and disbursements of the moneys which have been placed in their hands for the purposes described above.

7. The president and treasurer of the Board of Christian Education of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, shall make an accurate and full report to the board at its annual meeting on the occasion of the convening of the annual conference in 1931 and each year thereafter.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. STANBURY, President,
M. J. COWELL, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2 OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Board of Education, North Carolina Conference, in session in Queen Street Church, Kinston, October 31, 1929, appointed a commission of five, consisting of J. F. Bruton, R. L. Flowers, Willis Smith, W. A. Stanbury and C. K. Proctor, to "co-operate with the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College in working out a financial plan for meeting the present problems of the college."

At a meeting of the Commission and the Board of Trustees April 18, the Commission agreed to recommend that the Annual Conference ratify and confirm the action of the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College in the execution and delivery of obligations and deed of trust securing same on certain items of property of the college to obtain amount absolutely necessary to save the corporation from immediate bankruptcy, without obligation or liability, however, on the part of the Annual Conference, except as to any equities of the conference in the properties transferred.

We do now ask that the conference confirm and ratify the action of the trustees of said college of date of May 1, 1930, executed to J. L. Simmons, trustee, in the amount of $50,000.

W. A. STANBURY, President,
M. J. COWELL, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 3 OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

PART I

The Board of Christian Education, succeeding to the responsibilities of the former Epworth League Board, Sunday School Board and Board of Education, assures the conference of its desire to conserve all the values of our work as hitherto organized, and of our hope and sincere endeavor to the end that the unified program of Christian Education may be so carried out as to produce among our people a more effective and thorough, as well as a more nearly universal, development of Christian character. It is our hope and prayer that our youth especially may be guided into Jesus' way of life and that so far as we and other Christian denominations may by the help of God bring it to pass, our society may be wrought into the pattern of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. To this end the members of this board prayerfully pledge themselves. We crave the patience, sympathy, encouragement and support of the conference as we undertake the discharge of our duties. Pray for us that we may not fail but may follow our Master's guidance in all things.

PART II

In assuming these responsibilities we have done our best as a board to formulate a program that would integrate the various interests of the former boards and at the same time go forward in an even more extensive way than heretofore. We recommend that during the coming year our work be stressed along the following lines:

1st. The training of religious workers. This may be accomplished through standard training schools, standard training classes, Cokesbury schools, pastors' schools, schools, colleges, League assemblies and other agencies.

2nd. The promotion of a recreational program to be worked out through summer camps and in other practical ways.

3rd. The encouragement and promotion of vacation church schools.

4th. The development of religious work among students in both our state and church colleges. (It is especially recommended that survey courses in religious education be provided wherever practical in order that a larger number of students may be trained for effective work in the field or local church.)

5th. Week-day religious instruction of children.

6th. District organization or such other organization as seems advisable.

7th. The integration of local church organizations in one constructive program as far as practicable.

8th. Provision for three divisions, adult, young people's and elementary, as soon as practicable.

9th. A conference-wide conference on Christian Education and a conference-wide Young People's Assembly.

10th. It is further suggested that this board recognize especially the work of the Epworth League as being carried forward and recommend that it be continued under such supervision and regulation as the executive secretary may determine.

GREENSBORO COLLEGE

Greensboro College for Women is constantly and in a larger way meeting the needs for Christian Education for young women. The annual report of the Board of Trustees shows sign of steady progress.

We note with sorrow that during the year Mr. James A. Odell, former trustee of the college, passed away. In his will approximately $100,000 was bequeathed to the college. His long years of service and liberal contribution has been deeply appreciated.

During the year Mrs. Lucy Robertson, former president of the college, passed away in her eightieth year. Her life of devoted service stands out as an inspiring example. A chair of religious education, named in her honor, is being established.

The value of the property of Greensboro College is $584,064 with an endowment of $363,899, the total indebtedness, $37,218, and a total annual income of $194,220.

We recommend the confirmation of Mr. Charles S. Wallace, of Morehead City, North Carolina, as trustee of Greensboro College representing the North Carolina Conference for a term of six years to succeed himself, and we recommend confirmation of Miss Hettie Lion as trustee representing the Alumnae Association to succeed herself for a term of six years.

LOUISBURG COLLEGE

See report No. 4.

PART IV

Your board announces the election of Mr. L. L. Gobbel as executive secretary to begin upon his return from Yale University June 15, 1931, at a salary of $4,000 per annum, said salary to begin at the beginning of his active service.

Your board has secured the services of Prof. H. E. Spence to act as executive secretary ad interim with a nominal salary for part-time work.

The other members of the staff are to be selected by the Executive Committee.

ESTIMATES

The following are the estimates and apportionments allotted to the cause of Christian education in our conference (subject to horizontal scaling down of ten per cent called for in the conference Budget Commission report):

Duke University	$10,000.00
Greensboro College	6,250.00
Christian Students' Loan Fund	1,000.00
Pastors' School	800.00
	$18,050.00

APPOINTMENTS

We recommend the following appointments:

Professors in Duke University—H. E. Spence, J. M. Ormond, H. E. Myers.
Director Wesley Foundation, General Board of Christian Education—J. M. Culbreth.

Student at Duke University—Offie L. Hathaway, Bailey Quarterly Conference.
President Scarritt College for Christian Workers, Nashville, Tenn.—J. L. Cuninggim.

Student Union Theological Seminary, New York City—R. L. Jerome and R. G. Dawson.

Superintendent Oxford Masonic Orphanage—C. K. Proctor.

We recommend the confirmation of the following as members of the Board of Managers of the Pastors' School—W. A. Stanbury, E. C. Few, H. E. Spence and R. L. Flowers.

We recommend the confirmation of the following as trustees of Greensboro College—Charles S. Wallace, of Morehead City, to succeed himself for a term of six years from December 31, 1930, and Miss Hettie N. Lyon, for a term of six years, succeeding herself from December 31, 1930.

We recommend the confirmation of the following as trustees of Louisburg College, class of 1933—Rev. O. W. Dowd, Mr. W. M. Boyd, Mr. F. B. McKinnie, Rev. T. M. Grant and Rev. E. C. Few.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. STANBURY, President,
M. J. COWELL, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 4 OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Your board wishes to quote from the report of the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College as follows:

"We, the trustees of Louisburg College, wish respectfully to make the following requests to the Board of Education of the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South: (a) In view of the fact that Louisburg College has become rather heavily involved, having a total indebtedness of $146,049.32, which indebtedness represents unpaid payments on buildings and equipment, which buildings and equipment have become the property of the North Carolina Conference and represent along with other property of the college a net worth of more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000); and whereas, we, the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College, have exhausted every available means known to us of raising additional funds for the institution, we respectfully request the Board of Education to recommend that the North Carolina Annual Conference assume the present indebtedness of Louisburg College, and thereby make possible the continuation of the noble and invaluable service which this institution has been rendering for more than a century.

"(b) In case the Board of Education does not see fit to recommend and the North Carolina Conference declines to take such steps as shall be necessary to continue the operation of Louisburg College under its present form of administration, we, the trustees of Louisburg College, kindly request that the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, take such action as it sees fit to operate the college, or make whatever other disposition of the institution may seem wise under the prevailing circumstances."

The Board of Christian Education took the following action and recommends that it be adopted by the annual conference:

(a) "The request of the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College that we ask the conference to assume the indebtedness of the college is respectfully declined, and

(b) "That as to the future course to be pursued, the best that we can suggest is that the trustees of Louisburg College direct and handle the affairs of Louisburg College to the best interests of all concerned."

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. STANBURY, President,
M. J. COWELL, Secretary.

The following substitute was adopted in place of report 4 of Board of Christian Education:

SUBSTITUTE FOR REPORT NO. 4 OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The undersigned respectfully offers as substitute for report No. 4 of the Board of Christian Education now pending before this conference the following:

1. That this conference learns with exceeding regret of the financial difficulties of Louisburg College in its current operating expenses, and hereby records its willingness to assist in the financial burden of its current operating expenses accrued and accruing from November 1st, 1930, and until January 20th, 1931, and unto that end the Executive Committee of the Board of Christian Education of this conference is hereby authorized, empowered and directed by this conference:

(a). To forthwith borrow a sum or sums of money as needed, the aggregate not to exceed twelve thousand ($12,000) dollars, to be used and applied by said Executive Committee or its designated agent or agencies only and exclusively in the current operating expenses of Louisburg College accrued and accruing since November 1, 1930, and until January 20, 1931, any remaining of said fund to be applied by the Executive Committee of the said Board of Education in the liquidation pro tanto of said fund so borrowed.

(b). That an emergency appropriation sufficient to pay the interest and retire 25% of the principal of said loan or loans each year be included in the budget of this conference, beginning with this conference and continuing through this quadrennium, and until said loan or loans are fully liquidated.

(c). That this conference earnestly urges our pastors and people to co-operate, help and in every way encourage the authorized agents, trustees and management of Louisburg College to provide for the continued operation of said college on and after January 20, 1931.

(d). That in the event sufficient funds are not to be had or anticipated, or other satisfactory arrangements made for the continued operation of Louisburg College after January 20, 1931, then and in that event the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College or other agents or agencies designated by this conference be and they are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to make such arrangements and disposition of said college and its property as may be approved by the presiding Bishop and his cabinet of this conference.

F. S. LOVE,
A. D. WILCOX.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

In making its final report to the North Carolina Conference, the Sunday School Board is glad to announce a very successful year in spite of unusual handicaps. Not only has it had to face the financial depression which has prevailed in the conference but it also has suffered from having its funds tied up in the closing of the bank where they were deposited. This has called for very stringent curtailment of expenditures on the part of our office force. In spite of this, however, there has been such wise management that we have not been compelled to retrench in the more important phases of our work. We are grateful to our generous friends whose timely contributions have made possible the continuation of our program.

In the main our work has proceeded along the lines which we have been following for the past quadrennium. Especial stress has been placed upon an increase in membership; the cultivation of a proper missionary spirit; an improvement in worship; evangelism in all of its phases; the placing and interpreting of programs of work; and the promotion of training work. We have also done what we could to co-operate with the church in the Pentecostal movement.

Among the indications of a very successful year we note the following definite achievements:

First, the holding of an unusually successful conference-wide conference at Greenville.

Second, the promotion of Bible conferences in the attempt to stimulate fresh interest in systematic Bible study.

Third, the introduction of programs of work among nearly 200 of our schools.

Fourth, the conducting of fifteen vacation church schools.

Fifth, the promotion of the finest program of teacher training that we have had in recent years.

A summary of our training work will show that we held 13 standard training schools, with 640 credits; 95 Cokesbury schools with 1,370 credits and that through the Pastors' School, Junaluska, approved training classes, local training classes, by correspondence, through our church schools and otherwise, we have amassed nearly 2,000 standard units of credit, more than 1,500 Cokesbury credits or a grand total of 3,521 units of credit.

The work in the Rural Extension Department has been especially gratifying. While we have been compelled to do without an extension secretary, the work has been directed by our superintendent, who has received unusually valuable aid from the Duke Foundation. Through its generosity we were furnished the services of the following young ministers who were on the Duke Foundation: C. A. Baker, John R. Carruth, Raymond W. Council, Sherwood W. Funk, Roy A. Grisham, E. M. Sharp, Frank W. Shell and Raymond E. Wilson. We wish to express our deepest gratitude to the university for the service of these men.

We also want to thank Prof. R. L. Flowers for acting as treasurer of our board and to our many friends who generously supported us during our financial stress.

In closing its work, your board wishes to re-emphasize its appreciation of the hearty support which has been given it. We also wish to record our appreciation of the very excellent service which has been rendered it by the office staff, noting especially our obligation to Mr. L. L. Gobbel and Miss Georgia S. Keene.

Respectfully submitted,

H. E. SPENCE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

The retiring Epworth League Board wishes to present the following report:

The last year has been the best of our quadrennium. There were 350 in attendance at our Louisburg Summer Assembly July 7-11. Two hundred ninety-six Christian culture certificates were awarded, which is the largest number on record.

For the first time we have had a field secretary, Rev. Philip Schwartz, who has done a very effectual work as the following facts indicate. During the year he delivered 42 addresses in 36 pastoral charges and eight districts to the young people of our conference. In addition, he directed recreational programs and held three schools with a total of 64 credits given. This service was rendered freely without cost to the board, except for actual expense incurred—$305.15. We recommend his continuance the new conference year.

It is the sense of our board that we express full accord with the new plan of co-ordination of the three boards decided upon by our last General Conference, looking towards the ultimate reorganization of a unified, and expanding, and more effective work with and by our young people in our great church, and their place of primacy in bringing to pass the Kingdom of Christ in the world.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL LANE, President,
A. J. HOBBS, JR., Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Your board has been deeply saddened by the death of our former secretary, Rev. E. Frank Lee, and also by the death of Brother D. N. Geddie.

Owing to the stringency of the conference-wide money depression, the board has experienced an unusual shortage of funds, and our applications have been very large and distressing. They have been far beyond our ability to grant relief. The amount received this conference year for the Relief fund$3,039.47
The amount of donations asked for was 6,225.00
The amount available for the Loan Fund was 1,933.64
The applications made amounted to 2,850.00

Your board considered every one of these applications, striving earnestly to distribute both funds judiciously.

The following appropriations were made, subject to scale, as follows:

DONATIONS TO CHURCHES

St. Pauls Church	$500.00
Woodland Church (Rich Square Circuit)	200.00
College Place Church (Greensboro)	500.00
Sighing Pine Church (South Camden Circuit)	300.00
(Provided the church raises $200.00)
Salem Church (Ingold Circuit)	175.00
(Provided this amount clears the debt)

DONATIONS TO PARSONAGES

Seven Springs Circuit	$200.00
Shallotte Circuit	300.00
Carr Charge	500.00
Kitty Hawk Circuit	100.00
West End Circuit	150.00
North Gates Circuit	400.00
Donation to the General Board	$ 81.00
(Interest on $2,000 borrowed by Conference Board for Roanoke Rapids Church.)

Not knowing the amount in the gift fund—while in session, a number of applications were left in the hands of the Executive Committee for action in the spring.

LOANS GRANTED

West End Circuit Parsonage	$1,000.00
Fremont Church	600.00

We desire to express our appreciation of the aid bestowed by the Duke Endowment for the assistance of building better country churches and equipping them for more efficient service, and also for better maintenance for the country pastors. Last year the Duke Endowment appropriated $75,400 for church buildings and $53,167 for their support, a grand total amounting to $128,567, which is a very remarkable and effective sum.

We urge our preachers to avoid contracting large debts with the expectation of excessive loans or donations from the Church Extension Boards and to observe the law of the church contained in Paragraph 239 of the Book of Discipline, which requires a complete estimate on the cost of the building, and also that three-fourths of estimated costs of the entire enterprise be secured before any building is commenced.

We also wish to urge our preachers contemplating building to consult our architects, either at Louisville or Duke University. This department of our church architecture is so efficient that there is no longer any apology for grave mistakes such as have often been made in the past. By consulting them, we may obtain both advice and aid in planning and erecting a church building suited to any specific congregation.

The following organization has been effected for the new quadrennium:

President	Euclid H. McWhorter
Vice-President	B. P. Robinson
Secretary	Marvin Y. Self
Assistant Secretary	B. B. Slaughter
Treasurer	C. P. Quincy

All correspondence should be addressed to the secretary. It was ordered that applications for aid must be in the hands of the secretary ten days previous to the session of the Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

EUCLID McWHORTER, President,
MARVIN Y. SELF, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

PUBLISHING HOUSE

The annual statement of the Publishing House, M. E. Church, South, approved by the Book Committee, has been carefully considered, and found to be of such fine interest that we gladly present it herewith to our conference. This report meets the requirements in the Discipline, and is for the fiscal year ending February 28, 1930.

"We have made still further improvements in our Sunday school literature without any increase in price.

"The Christian Advocate continues to show a considerable loss to the house. The only remedy for this is in securing a larger increase in the number of subscribers. We have earnestly, and in many ways, tried to do this, but hitherto have not succeeded.

"The Cokesbury Press has issued many valuable books during the year by authors of national and international reputation, which have met with gratifying reception from the reading public. Your Publishing House now ranks among the leading publishers of religious and devotional books, not only in our own country, but in the world.

"We have compared the prices at which books and Sunday school literature are sold by us with those charged by other houses, and we find that our prices are appreciably lower on almost every item. We invite your own investigation of the truth of this statement, which can be easily made by simply taking any book published by another house and comparing it and its price with a similar book published by us.

"The total sales for the past year were $1,931,298.05, and the net profit on sales amounted to $150,361.53.

"We express to our preachers and people our deep and sincere appreciation of their continued loyal support which has made possible the prosperity of the house and its present fine standing in the financial world.

"Reviewing the year's work, the Book Committee has found itself justified in appropriating the sum of $100,000 for the benefit of claimants on the conference funds. This is $40,000 increase over the appropriation for the first year of the last quadrennium."

"LAMAR & WHITMORE, Agents."

The progress revealed by these significant facts gives our whole church genuine rejoicing, and furnishes us occasion for sincere gratitude for continued blessing on our great Publishing House in its several branches. There surely ought to be renewed energetic effort to increase the circulation of the Christian Advocate, our excellent general organ, and greatly to enlarge the distribution of free tracts among all our people, and among those who are usually destitute of Christian literature. The reading of such books as our good agents supply would mean a better type of church membership. We are truly glad of the successful financial showing.

As this is the seventy-fifth anniversary of our publishing interests, we heartily welcome participation in our own Conference Organ Diamond Jubilee.

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

We are thoroughly convinced that this very fine paper is altogether worthy, and that it is serving a great need in our North Carolina Methodism. Though accounted for by the general business depression, we sincerely regret the following financial losses: subscriptions, $278.12; advertising, $1,431.41; job work, $4,778.14, making a total loss of $6,487.67, as compared with 1929. In view of this changed condition, we urge conscientious and continuous co-operation and steadfast support. We are pleased to incorporate into our report the report from the officers of the Methodist Board of Publication, Incorporated, as follows: "In the face of much complaint of hard times, the Advocate has steadily gone forward with an enlarging subscription list. The plan for 'trial subscriptions' has been a remarkable success, 7,000 new subscribers having been enrolled within the last two months. We are now sending out 22,000 papers each week.

"We now offer the following recommendations for the next year:

"1. That the Methodists of these two conferences in North Carolina set themselves to the work of building up a printing plant in Greensboro that will be in keeping with our colleges and other institutions in the state. The North Carolina Christian Advocate is closing its seventy-fifth year, but only for twenty-five years have we been working in a permanent way. Our united effort in the state dates back for only a decade. With wise planning and persistent effort much can be done in the next twenty-five years. Preachers and leading laymen should lend every energy to this end, as they can keep this ideal before the Methodist people.

"2. A special state-wide effort should be made to secure more job work. With the plant we have it should be possible for us to save our people money, and at the same time give them first-class work. We certainly can meet all competitors for the same grade of work done. Let our conferences, schools, and boards, as well as individuals, turn work to the Advocate office. We have some regular customers who without questions forward to us work to be done. We desire to increase the number of those who know where to go for good work at reasonable prices. Our chief business is not to make money, though we must have a care to meet requirements. We have no subsidy or help from any other source.

"3. Careful work must be done to make our 'trial subscribers' permanent readers of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. The office expects to follow these up through the mails. Let the pastors encourage the people to renew before the twelve weeks shall have expired, that they may not miss a copy. A united effort to hold our present readers and to secure these who are testing out the paper should enable us to make a fine showing this new year. The North Carolina Christian Advocate is now at the head of the procession—let it become an increasing influence in all our Methodist homes.

"If a drop of ink may make millions think, what should a great printing plant in Greensboro not do for the state and the regions beyond? Cannot we Methodists rise to the opportunity of the hour? The years hold the answer."

As H. C. Smith was nominated to succeed himself as a member of the Methodist Board of Publication, we recommend his election by the conference.

We request that M. T. Plyler be appointed editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate with a salary of $5,000 inclusive of house rent.

E. C. FEW, Chairman,
R. H. BROOM, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

The recent celebration of another Armistice Day calls our attention anew to that great day which the world fondly hoped and prayed would mark forever the end of the tragedy of war. We rejoice in the hope of the fulfillment of the vision of the prophet when "nations shall beat their swords into plow-shares and their spears into pruning hooks and learn war no more."

The action of the textile leaders in recognizing that the time has come to do away with night work by women and children is hailed as an important step in social and industrial progress. To the end of securing further protection to women and children in industry, approval is given to those agencies laboring to secure legislation that will lessen the working hours for women and children and prevent their employment in hazardous occupations with the goal of an eight-months school for every child in the state and a work-week of forty-eight hours.

The present distress, caused mainly by unemployment, makes an insistent demand upon the sympathy and generosity of all people. The test of a Christian civilization is its attitude toward the poor and those whom misfortune has overtaken. Hard times have stayed and lessened many useful ministrations, but these conditions should not permit suffering for food and clothing and the lack of evidences of human fellowship.

The widespread desecration of the Sabbath; the increase in vulgar and demoralizing literature; the multiplication of such plays and pictures as reek with "filth, rottenness and degeneracy," to quote Bishop Manning's recent characterization, should stimulate intelligent demand for the Christian observance of the Sabbath and the guarantee to all of that day for rest and worship. We call for the denial of the mails to publications appealing to the prurient taste; and the substitution of clean and wholesome entertainments for those which now affront the best moral standards.

The observance of law, the rendering unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, is laid upon the hearts and consciences of all law-abiding and Christian people. Only in the observance of the constitution and the statutes can stable government insure the blessings for which the fathers made sacrifice. The stain of lynching, the first for a long period on the escutcheon of the commonwealth, emphasizes renewed consecration to the doctrine that no crime justifies mob execution. As our state was shamed by the usurpation of the processes of law by an unauthorized body of men in our borders, that act calls for new and firm resolve to sterner devotion to law and the punishment of lawlessness.

The sharp challenge of the opponents of national prohibition makes necessary a remobilization of the forces which co-operated to secure the outlawry of the manufacture, sale and transportation of alcoholic liquor. That reform came after a century of struggle, led by the Christian churches of America. They enlisted in that mighty conflict because intoxicants debased the bodies and destroyed the souls of men and were the worst enemies of the home and the church.

Rule 1, of the early Methodist Church, forbade its members to "drink, buy or sell spirituous liquor." Earnest appeal is made to all our membership to live up to that high standard in their personal lives and to all leaders to illustrate by precept and example the principle of total abstinence, the only perfect recognition of the early Methodist rule and the spirit of the laws of America. To that end our preachers are urged to preach both observance and respect for all laws, laying particular emphasis in this day upon the eighteenth amendment and all measures looking to make this a sober nation. To the teachings of the evil effects of alcohol in the public schools, an active campaign should be undertaken to carry this educational process to the whole people.

Co-operation is hereby pledged to all Christian churches, to the Anti-Saloon League and all other organizations which have enlisted in the war against intemperance.

The attitude of our church today was set forth by the General Conference last May. It is a trumpet command to the Methodists of this day to meet organized opposition with militant determination. The Dallas declaration contained this ringing call to the church and all its membership:

"We firmly set our faces against any recession from the constitutional outlawry of the liquor traffic. We highly resolve to enlist our every power to maintain in full force the eighteenth amendment and all laws of state and nation for its observance and enforcement. We pledge our sincere support to all officials of the law, from the lowest to the highest, who are vigilantly using their best endeavors to end violations of this and all laws. We will never surrender the advance made for national sobriety. No retreat shall be sounded."

C. M. LANCE, Chairman,

W. T. PHIPPS, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF FINANCE

Your Board of Finance submits the following:

Your board is not unmindful of the progress that has been made in providing a better support for our conference claimants, yet, the sad fact remains that there is still much to be done. As a church we have raised 60% of the goal which we set for ourselves. Our own conference has not done that well, having paid only 38% of its quota for this cause.

We are glad to note that 13 charges have paid their five year quota. But we are sorry to recall that 47 charges have paid less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), while three charges have paid nothing and 96 charges paid nothing last year. If we active preachers could only realize that we are superannuates in the making, we would give more serious attention to the cause of Superannuate Endowment.

We are glad that this cause comes nearer having right of way during the coming quadrennium than at any time since its beginning. Let Presiding Elders, preachers and laymen give ourselves unreservedly to the task of carrying this special effort to a glorious completion during this quadrennium.

We request the Bishop to appoint Rev. T. M. Grant conference director of Superannuate Endowment, and ask that he be given the hearty co-operation of every member of the conference in this work. (Your board asks that the month of April be used, where practicable, for this work.)

We request that each Presiding Elder provide in his district conference program an opportunity for the director, or his representative, to present this cause.

The following claimants have died during the year: R. W. Bailey, N. E. Coltrane, A. McCullen, E. M. Snipes, E. C. Sell, Mrs. Z. T. Harrison, Mrs. J. Y. Old, Mrs. J. D. Pegram, Mrs. W. W. Rose, Mrs. F. D. Swindell and Mrs. M. C. Thomas.

F. S. ALDRIDGE, Chairman,
JUNIUS WREN, Treasurer,
L. T. SINGLETON, Secretary.

REPORT OF BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD

The Bible Society appreciates very much the contributions made to them by our conference, and will appreciate this fact being made known to each congregation.

We, your board, feel that the work of this society is too important for our people to lose sight of, and suggest that the pastors sometime during the year bring it to the attention of their congregations.

J. W. BRADLEY, Chairman,

C. T. ROGERS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET

Your Commission on Budget beg leave to submit the following report:

After due consideration of the askings from the conference boards, we recommend the following assessments:

Missions	$20,700.00
Education	33,885.00
Claimants	18,000.00
Church Extension	6,300.00
Lay Activities	630.00
Conference Entertainment	3,000.00
Secretarial Work	200.00
Conference Minutes	1,600.00
Conference Treasurer	300.00
Orphanage	45,000.00
Lake Junaluska	1,514.00
	$131,129.00

Apportionments of the conference assessments of $131,129 are made to the districts as follows:

Durham	$18,332.00
Elizabeth City	11,394.00
Fayetteville	12,993.00
New Bern	15,418.00
Raleigh	15,207.00
Rockingham	14,650.00
Washington	15,323.00
Weldon	15,134.00
Wilmington	12,678.00
	$131,129.00

The apportionments of the General Conference assessments of $84,114 to the districts are as follows:

Durham	$11,760.00
Elizabeth City	7,309.00
Fayetteville	8,335.00
New Bern	9,890.00
Raleigh	7,955.00

Washington	9,828.00
Weldon	9,707.00
Wilmington	8,132.00
	$84,114.00

On the first day of the meeting of the annual conference, before figuring any percentage, the conference treasurer is directed to pay to the local church where the conference is held the sum of $3,000.00 for conference expense; he is also directed to pay to the conference secretary $1,600.00 to cover his salary, incidental expenses and the printing of the conference journal; to the statistical secretary $200.00, and to the conference treasurer $300.00 to cover his salary.

The percentages for distribution to the other causes from the balance collected are:

Missions	16.42%
Education	26.89%
Claimants	14.28%
Church Extension	5.00%
Lay Activities51%
Orphanage	35.70%
Lake Junaluska	1.20%
	100.00%

Your commission recommends that out of all the amounts collected from the grand total of $215,243, the distribution shall be made by the conference treasurer on the following basis:

To the Conference Work	61%
To the General Conference Work	39%

The books of the conference treasurer were audited during the past year by W. T. Dixon, certified accountant, of Raleigh, N. C. The report of the auditor is entered on the records of the commission.

The North Carolina Conference, on motion, referred the gift of Mr. B. N. Duke of fifty thousand dollars to the Budget Commission for recommendation as to the proper disposition and handling thereof and conditions governing the same.

We recommend that the gift of Mr. Duke, together with accrued interest, be turned over by the secretary of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the present custodian of the same, to the trustees of the North Carolina Conference; and we recommend the following as some of the helps in the investment and protection of this fund and other funds now in the hands of said trustees:

1. That investments by the trustees be made in government securities, or securities of high grade and character and recognized as such by the best business judgment prevailing and available.

2. That the secretary-treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference be bonded to the extent of twenty thousand dollars in some bonding company licensed and authorized by the state of North Carolina, for the faithful discharge of his duties as secretary-treasurer of the Conference Trustees. The premium of such bonds is to be paid from the income of said Board of Trustees.

3. That the said Board of Trustees be requested to render annual reports to this Annual Conference setting forth the dealings and operation of said trustees for the year, the same to be accompanied by a report of an audit thereof by a certified public accountant recognized by the state of North Carolina.

4. That we believe it to be wise for the Board of Trustees of this conference to secure a charter for a charitable corporation under the laws of the state of North Carolina, with definite charter provisions for their operations, the same to be submitted to the next annual meeting of this conference for their consideration; and we do hereby recommend that this conference so instruct said Board of Trustees.

The Commission on Budget recommends that the several boards of the North Carolina Conference join with the conference treasurer in executing a blanket security bond for the protection of the office of treasurer of the various boards, each board bearing its proportionate part of the cost of such bond. The amount of these bonds is estimated as twenty-five (25%) per cent of the average holdings of the several board treasurers, and is recommended to be in the following amounts:

For Conference Treasurer	$10,000.00
For Board of Missions Treasurer	5,000.00
For Board of Education Treasurer	5,000.00
For Board of Church Extension Treasurer	2,000.00
For Board of Finance Treasurer	1,000.00
For Board of Lay Activities Treasurer	500.00

We recommend that the various treasurers of conference boards place the board funds in banks that will give them depository security. In such cases where board deposits are not covered by depository security, we recommend that the deposits of each board be secured by a bond equal to twenty-five (25%) per cent of the average holdings of such board treasurer.

JOHN F. BRUTON, Chairman,

SPECIAL REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET

GROUP INSURANCE

We received and considered the resolution of the Joint Committee on Group Insurance. It being evident that such a plan for group insurance could not be put into effect this year except by making this a preferred claim on the conference, on motion, the report of the Joint Committee on Group Insurance was referred back to the same committee to be presented to the Commission on Budget at the beginning of the next annual conference.

JOHN F. BRUTON, Chairman,
F. S. ALDRIDGE, Secretary.

REPORT OF ORPHANAGE COMMITTEE

Your committee submits the following report:

As a result of a special meeting held during the fall, fifty-three of the children from the Methodist Orphanage joined Jenkins Memorial Church. All children in the Methodist Orphanage above six or seven years of age are members of the Methodist Church. The superintendent and his corps of workers are endeavoring to give religious instruction to all children who come under their tender care.

Your committee is highly gratified over the fact that the orphanage is conducted on an economical basis. The Duke Foundation shows that the Methodist Orphanage is operated at a smaller per capita cost than many of the larger orphanages in the two Carolinas.

Since there is such a big shortage in the orphanage assessment for this year, as the reports of the preachers indicate, we wish to urge all pastors, Sunday school superintendents and teachers of organized classes to take special offerings in all the churches during the Thanksgiving season. We recognize the fact that it will take four Sundays for pastors on circuits to take a special offering in all their churches, but we wish to urge them not to relax their efforts until every church has been given an opportunity to contribute. Unless all the churches do come to the relief of our orphanage in this time of stress and storm, the orphanage will be forced to become heavily involved in debt. Because of the serious situation that confronts us, we would urge our entire church membership to co-operate with the trustees and pastors in providing support for our three hundred and thirty-nine (339) fatherless children. The trustees of the orphanage have borrowed ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) this fall for operating expenses, and this large amount must be paid back at an early date.

Your committee ask that the orphanage assessment remain the same as it was this past year. We wish to request all our Sunday schools to give monthly offerings to the orphanage as specials and not to be applied on the assessment.

We recommend the election of the following trustees for a term of three years to succeed themselves: Josephus Daniels, Norwood Boyd, B. B. Adams, M. Bradshaw, Dr. Albert Anderson, C. A. Dillon, J. S. Wynne, A. H. Vann and Frank B. Brown.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, That the trustees of the Methodist Orphanage be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to take the necessary steps to have the charter of the orphanage amended so as to provide that the term of one-third of the Board of Trustees shall expire every two years, and that the terms of the present board shall be decided by agreement or lot, at the first meeting of the trustees after the charter is amended so that the term of one-third of the present board shall expire in two years, one-third in four years, and one-third in six years, and that this conference at its session next preceding the expiration of the terms of office of said trustees, shall elect trustees for a term of six years; that the amendment to the charter shall provide for a board of eighteen trustees as now constituted, with power and authority in the conference to increase the board to not exceeding twenty-four trustees.”

We wish to commend the superintendent for the loyal, devoted and faithful service which he has rendered during the past sixteen years. We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. A. S. Barnes as superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage. We also recommend the appointment of Rev. C. K. Proctor, superintendent of the Oxford Orphanage, and Rev. E. L. Stack as superintendent of the Odd Fellows Home, since each of them has been duly elected by their respective Boards of Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

C. K. PROCTOR, Chairman,
C. A. JONES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We call especial attention in this report to five changes in the program of work and organization of the Board of Lay Activities that are made possible by legislation enacted at the last General Conference, and the new opportunities and responsibilities that come to the lay membership of the church through this new legislation:

1. The scope of work is enlarged to include “Training of Church Officers” in co-operation with the Board of Christian Education.
2. The charge and church lay leaders and the chairman of the Stewardship Committee are made members of the Quarterly Conference, being elected by the Quarterly Conference.

3. The district and the associate district lay leaders are members of the District Conference.

4. The district Board of Lay Activities is required to meet with the district stewards in the interest of the benevolences and to plan the lay work for the year.

5. The Board of Stewards is made responsible for the work of lay activities in the charge and the local church under the direction of the pastor and lay leaders.

According to the instructions of the General Conference, the Board of Lay Activities will continue its efforts to promote full payment of all benevolences, "but under the direction of the Commission on Benevolences." Some success has attended our work in this regard in the past and we urge the entire lay organization, including the Board of Stewards of each church, to co-operate earnestly in the plans outlined and adopted for this work. We must go forward in this endeavor until all our people are informed concerning the great causes represented in the benevolence dollar and gladly bring their offerings as an act of worship and an investment in the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.

We recommend the Methodist Layman not only as an official organ of the Lay Board, but also as a religious magazine for the men of the church and in particular for the members of the Boards of Stewards. This paper will prove to be invaluable to the stewards in their new responsibility. We pledge ourselves to secure a wide circulation of this paper and set as our goal a subscription from each lay leader and each member of the Board of Stewards. We are again sending the paper to all the preachers of the conference, including the superannuates, and we accept our quota for 675 paid subscribers.

We concur in the plan of the General Board for the observance of "Laymen's Day," using as the theme, for the day, "The Way to Spiritual Power," and we ask the conference to designate for this purpose the second Sunday in June, June 14, 1931. We pledge our best efforts to secure on this day a service conducted by laymen in every church in the conference.

The laymen wish to assume their part in the program of the observance of the nineteenth anniversary of Pentecost and to this end we pledge the lay organization to co-operate with the Bishop, the Presiding Elders, and our pastors to bring about a higher spiritual life in all the churches in our conference.

We earnestly plead for the sympathy, encouragement, and leadership of our Presiding Elders and pastors in inspiring and training the lay organization for its task. We have only one desire and that is to serve as best we can in advancing the work of our great church and the cause of Christ.

We are grateful for the change in date by which the Annual Conference is held two weeks later this year, and we believe that the third Wednesday in November might well be made the stated time for holding this conference.

We nominate W. P. Few for conference lay leader.

W. P. FEW, Chairman,
F. S. ALDRIDGE, Secretary.

REPORT OF HOSPITAL BOARD

Your Conference Hospital Board reports with satisfaction that substantial progress has been made during the past year in the development of the hospital program throughout the church. The new Methodist hospital at Ft. Worth, Texas, is admitted to be one of the greatest hospital structures in the United States. A new building is being completed at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis at a cost of $500,000, and its surgical ward will be given an endowment of $450,000. A new building is under process of construction at the Good Samaritan Hospital at Lexington, Kentucky, and will cost $300,000. We are gratified to know that a new hospital is being erected by the Western North Carolina Conference at Elkin, N. C., with the assistance of the Duke Foundation and the contributions of the members of the family of the late Mr. Hugh Chatham.

We rejoice in the recent opening of the Duke University Hospital, of which the North Carolina Conference is a patronizing conference, and we call your attention to the legislation of the last General Conference which directs that one hundred per cent of the Golden Cross funds raised in such a patronizing conference shall be sent to the hospital situated within the bounds of said conference. We urge, therefore, that Golden Cross Week, which includes the second and third Sundays in May, be observed by every charge within the conference, so that all of our people may be given an opportunity to share in the Christ-like ministry of our own Methodist hospital at Durham.

We call your attention to the law of our church which directs that the moneys contributed by the local churches during the Golden Cross enrollment shall be sent to the treasurer of the North Carolina Conference, and by him forwarded monthly to the treasurer of the General Hospital Board, who shall remit these sums monthly to the Duke University Hospital. We would urge our Presiding Elders to appoint live district Golden Cross directors for the various districts, and would request our pastors to see that wide-awake Golden Cross directors be appointed for the local churches, subject to confirmation by the fourth Quarterly Conference.

We would recommend that the treasurer of the General Hospital Board be requested to remit whatever amount may remain in trust with the General Board for the North Carolina Conference, to the annual conference Hospital Board of the North Carolina Conference, to be used for the treatment of charity cases in Duke University Hospital as said conference board shall direct, in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 560 of the new Book of Discipline.

We hereby place in nomination for conference Golden Cross director for the new quadrennium the name of Rev. W. H. Brown.

W. B. COOPER, Chairman,
W. H. BROWN, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON BENEVOLENCES

The North Carolina Conference Commission on Benevolences submits the following report:

By its action at Dallas the General Conference directed the organization of a Commission on Benevolences to which commission was entrusted the responsibility of cultivating interest in all the benevolences of the church and with the responsibility for these collections throughout the church. Your commission met and organized with Bishop E. D. Mouzon as chairman, Rev. J. C. Wooten, vice-chairman, Rev. H. C. Smith, secretary, and W. L. Knight, treasurer.

It was agreed to call district meetings for the study of methods for raising our benevolent collections and for the apportioning the same to the several charges. Pastors are invited to sit with the district commission and advise them in this work.

The district meetings are called to meet at the following times and places:

Durham, December 3rd, at Durham.
Raleigh, December 4th, at Raleigh.
Weldon, December 5th, at Weldon.
Elizabeth City, December 8th, at Elizabeth City.
Washington, December 9th, at Greenville.

New Bern, December 10th, at New Bern.
Wilmington, December 11th, at Wilmington.
Fayetteville, December 12th, at Fayetteville.
Rockingham, December 15th, at Hamlet.

The conference commission stands ready to render any service possible in the district meetings, both in interpreting and making effective the program of the general commission.

(Signed) E. D. MOUZON, Chairman,
H. C. SMITH, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMISSION

The Joint Commission from the Methodist Protestant Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, submits the following as its annual report:

1. We reaffirm the action taken by our conferences in 1928 and 1929, a copy of which may be found in each of the conference journals for the years named. In this way, we continue a plan and also hold an ideal before our people as we move for more intimate fellowship and finer co-operation.

2. We recommend to the annual conferences of the two churches that a conference be held in Grace Methodist Protestant Church, Greensboro, in the early part of the next conference year; that this conference be composed of ministers and laymen of the two churches; and that all arrangements for the conference be in charge of a committee composed of Rev. M. T. Plyler, Mr. R. H. Brooks and Mr. S. W. Taylor. The purpose of this meeting is to talk over matters that are of mutual interest to the three conferences involved.

3. Following the agreement of a year ago that the term of office of two members of the Joint Commission representing the two denominations should expire each year, M. T. Plyler of the N. C. Conference and J. H. Barnhardt of the Western N. C. Conference were nominated by the group of the M. E. Church, South, for the election of their conferences, respectively, the N. C. Conference and the W. N. C. Conference. The matter of electing two members by the Methodist Protestant Conference was referred to the Nominating Committee of that conference.

M. T. PLYLER, President,
S. W. TAYLOR, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DUKE FUND COMMISSION

The Duke Endowment in 1929 made 142 separate appropriations towards the support of country churches in North Carolina totaling $53,167. The money appropriated to 44 church buildings amounted to $75,400. The grand total for support and for construction is $128,567.

Every effort is made to spend this money to the best advantage, both in the way of securing results and also to the end of stimulating self-reliance. A part of the maintenance fund goes to the support of men serving the country churches in needy fields, and a part to young ministers who are assigned during the summer months to aid the pastors in country places. This money does the double service of aiding the work, and at the same time helping to train young ministers. This is an experiment that is attracting the attention of students of the country church throughout the nation.

The money for building churches stimulates worth-while undertakings as well as aids in carrying out the plans in building churches adequate to meet the needs of the several communities in which they are located.

That an architect may be had, our Board of Church Extension of Louisville, Kentucky, provides a branch office at Durham, North Carolina. Mr. H. N. Hanes, a competent architect, has been in charge of this office at Durham since September, 1929. Thus architectural plans and architectural supervision, essential in most instances to secure adequate and attractive buildings, are provided by this arrangement.

We may add that the study of the country church made by Professor J. M. Ormond has been embodied in a volume which is now ready for the printer.

To spend more than $125,000 in one year on the country churches in North Carolina is highly significant. It is too much to hope that not a dollar of this is wasted, but this should be the ideal. Surely every member of these two conferences should aid in every way possible to see that the proper methods are formed to get a maximum of good with a minimum of waste. The personal element plays a large part in this difficult undertaking—more in the expenditures made for sustenance than in the outlay for buildings.

M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SPIRITUAL LIFE

Your committee believes that for the deepening of the spiritual life of all our people there should be held a number of spiritual life conferences this year, as follows:

One for the Washington and Elizabeth City Districts; one for the Durham, Raleigh and Weldon Districts; one for the New Bern and Wilmington Districts; and one for the Rockingham and Fayetteville Districts.

These conferences shall last a day and a half. The dates shall be set at such times as will allow the presence of Bishop Mouzon who will preside.

The Presiding Elders and lay leaders in each regional conference shall constitute a committee to assist the Bishop in setting up these conferences.

The purpose of these conferences shall be solely the deepening of the spiritual life of preachers and laity. The pastors are urged, wherever possible, to hold revivals in every church immediately following these conferences, and to assist fellow pastors in every way possible.

R. E. BROWN, Chairman,
W. V. McRAE, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY

Efforts have been made by our conference to provide needed places of worship, well located parsonages and better Sunday school equipment. In this program of expansion we appreciate in a deep sense the splendid work done by the Duke Foundation for our country churches. By these donations, problems of consolidation have been effected and many needy situations met.

We urge our people to give some time and consideration to the improvement and beautifying of the church and parsonage grounds.

We recommend that every church in the North Carolina Conference bear its name in some place easily seen by all, and that wherever advisable, outside bulletins be used in a manner as to benefit the greatest number.

We trust that every church will at all times be amply covered by fire insurance.

We most heartily recommend Mr. Hanes, church architect of the Board of Church Extension, and located at Duke University, to any preacher or people who are contemplating erecting new church buildings.

P. D. WOODALL, Chairman,
D. A. CLARKE, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS

Your Committee on Conference Relations submits the following report:

We recommend for the supernumerary relation, N. M. McDonald.

For the superannuate relation: E. C. Glenn, W. F. Galloway, L. E. Thompson, T. S. Coble, A. W. Price, C. C. Brothers, J. M. Wright, T. H. Sutton, R. B. John, L. H. Joyner, C. P. Jerome, S. A. REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION ON CHAPEL HILL AND COLLEGE PLACE CHURCHES

We, the Joint Commission appointed by the Western North Carolina and the North Carolina Conferences to devise ways and means by which a special fund of $100,000 shall be raised in the two conferences for the purpose of liquidating the indebtedness upon our church properties at Chapel Hill, N. C., and College Place, Greensboro, N. C., have adopted the following plan:

1st. That each conference raise $50,000.

2nd. That the entire amount be raised in four annual installments of $25,000 each.

3rd. That this sum be apportioned to the several districts of the two conferences as follows:

Western North Carolina Conference

Asheville	$1,000.00
Charlotte	2,200.00
Gastonia	1,000.00
Greensboro	2,200.00
Marion	500.00
Mt. Airy	500.00
Salisbury	1,000.00
Statesville	1,000.00
Waynesville	500.00
Winston-Salem	2,200.00

North Carolina Conference

Durham	$1,600.00
Elizabeth City	1,100.00
Fayetteville	1,300.00
New Bern	1,500.00
Raleigh	1,600.00
Rockingham	1,600.00
Weldon	1,000.00
Washington	1,600.00
Wilmington	1,200.00

4th. That the amount apportioned to each district be paid in full by February 1, 1931.

5th. That the money so raised be applied upon the debts now outstanding against the two churches, and that all amounts paid to Chapel Hill Church from this fund in the year 1930-1931 be applied against interest on outstanding indebtedness and in payment of obligation of that church to Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co., Greensboro, N. C.

6th. In accordance with the joint resolution, passed by the two conferences, all moneys raised under this special fund be divided as follows: 60% to Chapel Hill Church and 40% to College Place Church.

7th. That the treasurers of the participating conferences are hereby designated as treasurers of this fund.

RESOLUTION

Resolution on the Indebtedness of the Chapel Hill and College Place Churches

We, the Presiding Elders of the North Carolina Conference, endorse the plan proposed by the special committee on the Chapel Hill Methodist Church and College Place Church, Greensboro, to pay off the indebtedness of these two churches, and furthermore we pledge ourselves to lead in this effort in our several districts.

Signed by all the Presiding Elders,
H. M. NORTH, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE LAKE JUNALUSKA METHODIST ASSEMBLY

As is well known, the Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly is now under the direct control and ownership of the Annual Conferences east of the Mississippi River, each of the patronizing conferences being represented by two trustees elected by the conference.

A Committee on Assemblies was appointed at the recent session of the General Conference in Dallas, Texas. After reviewing the work of the two institutions, the committee recommended, and the General Conference adopted, the following:

"RESOLVED, That the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, recognizes the splendid spiritual and educational work that is being done at Lake Junaluska and the Western Methodist Assembly, and we commend them and their work to the patronage of our people, and in furtherance of these assemblies and their meritorious activities, the Committee on Budget is directed to provide a reasonably adequate amount in the general budget to take care of this pressing need; provided, however, that any Annual Conference shall have the right to decline to accept its pro rata of such asking or assessment or any part thereof; provided further that all contributions and responses from conferences west of the Mississippi River shall be for the Western Methodist Assembly and accordingly remitted."

The Commission on Budget recommended, and the General Conference approved, total askings of $40,000.00 for the two institutions under the above conditions. The asking for the North Carolina Conference for assemblies, which will go to the Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly, is $1,682.00. The Assembly, located as it is in North Carolina, makes a special appeal to the two Annual Conferences in this state and offers us special opportunities. We, therefore, urge our preachers to make known the advantages at Lake Junaluska, to go themselves and carry their people there, whenever possible, for the assemblies, conferences, training schools, and to participate in the great variety of opportunities offered by the assembly for instruction and recreation.

We particularly urge that all our churches promulgate information about the assembly and all its summer activities. The superintendent estimates that at least fifteen thousand people attended the several conferences and schools held at the Lake last summer, but it is hoped that even more of our people, particularly in North Carolina, may enjoy the benefits of the assembly in succeeding summers.

We nominate Rev. H. C. Smith to succeed himself as trustee of the assembly.

H. M. NORTH, Chairman,
W. A. STANBURY, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, desire to report that we have carefully examined the records of the Durham, Elizabeth City, Fayetteville, New Bern, Rockingham, Raleigh, Washington, Weldon and Wilmington Districts, and find that they have been faithfully and accurately kept.

We wish to commend the district secretaries for the splendid manner in which they have kept these records.

REPORT OF MANAGERS OF THE PASTORS' SCHOOL

The Pastors' School at Duke University opened June 10 and closed June 20, thus lasting for ten days, including one Sunday, instead of fourteen days and embracing two Sundays as heretofore. This plan gave entire satisfaction, and the same plan will be followed next June. The work done was most satisfactory and the interest well sustained.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

Pressingly gracious invitations have been received from Duke Memorial Church, Durham, and from Jarvis Memorial Church, Greenville, inviting this conference to meet with them in 1931.

For these invitations our sincere thanks are given, and we beg to be allowed the hope that the invitation, not now accepted, will be renewed till it can be accepted. However much we appreciate these invitations, only one can be accepted for 1931, and the committee acting for the conference accepts that from Jarvis Memorial Church, Greenville.

W. V. McRAE, Chairman.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

To the generous hearted people of this splendid city we convey our deep appreciation for the rare hospitality lavished upon us during the brief days of our pleasant stay in Henderson.

Apparently of one mind and determination, Henderson citizens set themselves to the task of entertaining in a manner not to be excelled. Their grateful guests are unanimously agreed that in the execution of this task, signal success has been achieved.

The careful and solicitous attention to even the minutest details manifested by brother W. C. Martin and his co-laborers has made all of us their debtors.

Nothing less than an utter lack of chivalry could forbid our expression of sincere thanks to the women of this church for their gracious care of us in serving the delicious meals.

The Henderson Daily Dispatch and state papers have been untiring in their effort to give such excellent publicity to the proceedings of this conference as to merit our highest esteem and praise.

All Henderson has successfully conspired to make our annual conference of the year nineteen thirty an occasion which shall linger with each of us as a happy memory.

As with regrets we take our leave, it is with an earnest prayer to our Heavenly Father for the continued outpouring of His spirit and grace upon the entire citizenry of this noble community.

RESOLUTION

Resolution on Proposed Union of the Methodist Protestant Church With the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in North Carolina

WHEREAS, The recent co-operation between the Methodist Protestant Church in North Carolina and the two conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in this state has brought out the almost complete unity in principle and processes of the two churches in our state and the oneness of our two peoples; and,

WHEREAS, The conference of the Methodist Protestant Church and the Western North Carolina Conference of our church, have taken steps to provide a commission with authority to act in an effort to secure an early union of these two churches in North Carolina;

THEREFORE, The North Carolina Conference expresses its sincere gladness and gratitude for the growing spirit of unity and for this possibility of union and request and empowers the Presiding Elders of the conference with the Bishop ex-officio, to act for this conference.

N. H. D. WILSON,
M. T. PLYLER.

RESOLUTION

Resolution on Temperance and Prohibition

RESOLVED: First: That we give special attention to arranging for mass meetings in our towns and villages to promote temperance, prohibition and law enforcement. These meetings may be arranged for Sunday afternoons and evenings, at which time prominent and effective speakers, such as Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon, may be secured to address mass meetings in which the various churches may be enlisted.

Second: That in our district conferences and other district meetings, special attention be given to this campaign of education.

Third: That we encourage the women to arrange programs and pageants in which the children and young people may be given a place in arousing the people and training the youth of our land as to the wreck and ruin caused by liquor.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE N. C. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Your Conference Board of Trustees desires to make the following report:
The first item is a

STATEMENT OF THE TREASURER

RESOURCES NOW ON HAND

From Advocate stock	$ 390.00
Interest on notes	498.00
Interest on bank deposits	64.52
	<hr/>
Total dividends	$ 952.52

The second item deals with the affairs of the board during the past two decades:

During the past twenty years the working capital held by the Board of Trustees is $10,038.00. At no time during the period has there been any change in the investments of funds without the counsel of wise and experienced business men in whom the board imposed confidence. During most of the years of the two decades the late Joseph G. Brown was the board's counselor.

By reference to the records in the conference journals it is found that the dividends for the past twenty years, including the present year, have averaged approximately seven and three-quarters per cent. The annual checks paid to the conference vary in amounts from $586.03 to $1,135.88. The treasurer's report just read shows the 1930 revenue to be approximately nine and one-half per cent.

The third item deals with recommendations and nominations by the board:

We, your Board of Trustees, recommend that the conference allow us to submit a brief report annually and that these reports, beginning with this one, shall be published in the conference journal.

We also recommend that you authorize the board to bond its treasurer.

In view of the fact that three members of the board are now superannuates, two of whom cannot attend the annual conference, we nominate the following persons for membership on the Board of Trustees, subject to your confirmation: A. S. Barnes, J. H. McCracken, J. F. Bruton, R. L. Flowers.

Respectfully submitted,

J. T. GIBBS, President,
J. M. ORMOND, Secretary.

ALPHESUS McCULLEN

By John H. Shore

Alphesus McCullen was born in Kinston, N. C., April 26, 1859, and passed away in peaceful triumph to his eternal inheritance in the house of many mansions from his home in Rockingham, N. C., November 6, 1929. He was the son of Bryan and Arcena McCullen.

On November 26, 1879, he was married to Miss L. Addison Cunningham by Rev. Fred D. Swindell, and they lacked only twenty days of having lived together fifty years.

Surviving him are his widow and four children, Jesse McCullen, who lives in New Jersey; Alphesus McCullen, Jr., Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. J. B. LeGwyn, Wilmington, N. C.; and Mrs. John W. Covington, Rockingham, N. C.

He was licensed to exhort October 24, 1879, and received license to preach May 17, 1880. William Closs was his Presiding Elder. At the request of Dr. Closs, he supplied the Wilson Circuit in 1882, and concluded the last service Dr. Closs ever held, the Doctor having been taken suddenly ill.

He was received on trial into the North Carolina Conference at its session held in Raleigh in 1882, with Bishop Keener presiding. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Linus Parker at Wilmington in 1884, and ordained an elder by Bishop J. C. Granbery at Reidsville in 1886. He served the following appointments in the conference: Craven Circuit, 1883-84; LaGrange Circuit, 1885; Louisburg, 1886-88; Reidsville, 1889. At the close of that year he was transferred to the Missouri Conference and stationed at Park Church, Hannibal. He served that church until September, 1890, when he returned to North Carolina and met with his old conference, at its first session after the division. His next appointment was the Warrenton Circuit, where he served from 1891 to 1894; Carthage Circuit, 1895-96; Henderson, 1897-99; Oxford, 1900-03; Fifth Street, Wilmington, 1904-06; Washington District, 1907-10; Rockingham District, 1911-14; Trinity Church, Durham, 1915-16.

While pastor in Henderson in 1898, he became chaplain of the old Third North Carolina Regiment, and while serving as pastor at Trinity Church, Durham, in 1916, his regiment was ordered to the Mexican border and he resigned his pastorate and went with his boys. His son, Lawrence, joined a company in this regiment (it was changed from the 3rd to the 120th), and insisted on accompanying his father to the Mexican border.

When war was declared with Germany, the regiment was brought to Camp Sevier at Greenville, S. C., and soon thereafter it was sent overseas to France, and he was left behind because of his physical condition. It was the one regret of his life, but he bowed in humble resignation. His son went to France, became a lieutenant, and was killed in action. Neither Major nor Mrs. McCullen desired that the remains be brought back home, but they wanted his body to sleep where he had fought and died—literally in Flanders Field.

When he was not permitted to go over-seas, he was left at Camp Sevier in charge of the "Casualty Battalion" and school for illiterates. The loss of his son, William Lawrence, was a terrible blow to his already over-burdened father heart. The exposure and the responsibility of the hundreds of men, left under his charge, were a heavy tax on his sympathy and physical strength. At the close of the war, he was sent to Asheville and was a patient at Kenilworth Hospital until August 15, 1919, when he was pronounced totally and permanently disabled, and was discharged September 2, 1919. He then returned to Rockingham, where he spent his last days in his own beautiful little bungalow.

As a husband, father, preacher, pastor, Presiding Elder and chaplain in the army, he was always the servant of God and true to the great commission of his Lord and Master.

Brother McCullen knew, loved and preached the doctrines of Methodism, for he believed intensely that these doctrines were the teachings of Jesus Christ. While he believed these doctrines, he was very brotherly and fraternal in his relations towards every man who loved the Lord Jesus Christ, and was much beloved by Christians of all denominations. He never went into the pulpit without the most exacting preparation, and when the people heard him, they knew that they were listening to a man who had an experimental knowledge of Jesus Christ, and who spoke with the voice of authority.

He was born with the spirit of a soldier and he had the bearing of a soldier, and was ready and unafraid, even as during 47 years in the ministry he carried the banner of the Cross, and 31 years followed the stars and stripes.

The funeral service was held in the Methodist Church at Rockingham, after which his body was tenderly laid beneath an avalanche of flowers in the cemetery at Rockingham, where a number of our preachers await the resurrection morning.

The service was conducted by the Presiding Elder, Rev. H. C. Smith, Dr. C. M. Hawkins, Rev. C. L. Read and this writer.

Among the most delightful memories of the writer of this memoir was the four years spent in Rockingham during the long invalidism of Brother McCullen. I had known him in his days of physical and mental vigor, and now in the time of his waning physical powers, I never knew a life that ripened more beautifully for the translation than did Brother McCullen. Tenderness, sympathy and charity marked his every word and act, and he was "Brother McCullen" to every man, woman and child in Rockingham. When physically able, he was always in his place at worship, and his words and prayers at the Wednesday evening services breathed the spirit of faith, hope and love.

Among the very last words that he spake before the spirit took its raptured flight to the bosom of God and the home of the redeemed, were these: "I never thought that heaven was like this." He then understood as he never could understand before the meaning of the words of Holy writ, "Eye hath not seen, the ear hath not heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, the things that God holds in reservation for them that love Him." Who does not covet the experience that can say in the last hour, "I never thought that heaven was like this."

"At the hour of death, after this life's whim,
When the heart beats low and the eyes grow dim,
And pain has exhausted every limb—
The lover of the Lord shall trust in Him.

"When the will has forgotten the life-long aim,
And the mind can only disgrace its fame,
And a man is uncertain of his own name—
The power of the Lord shall fill his frame.

"When the last sigh is heaved, and the last tear is shed,
And the coffin is waiting beside the bed,
And the widow and child forsake the dead—
The angel of the Lord shall lift up his head.

"For even the purest delight may pall,
And power must fail and pride must fall,
And the love of the dearest friends grow small,
But the glory of the Lord is all in all."

N. E. COLTRANE

By E. H. Davis

Nereus E. Coltrane, honored minister of God and faithful itinerant in the N. C. Conference for a long term of years, died at his residence in Greensboro, 1612 Spring Garden St., June 2, 1930. Though the call at the last was sudden, yet his death was not altogether unexpected as his health had been impaired by an attack of influenza in the early spring. However, as his custom was, he was at the morning service at West Market Street Church the day preceding his death and half an hour before the call came there was not warning to his family or, as far as is known, to himself. But ready to go through forty-six years of itinerating in the conference whenever and wherever the appointing powers said go, ready to desist from the active ministry whenever under the providence of God in his own judgment and that of his brethren it was thought best that he should, there can be no doubt that he was ready, too, for this last supreme call.

Brother Coltrane was the son of Jesse Franklin and Abigail Gardner Coltrane and was born in Randolph County, N. C., February 24, 1850. Following up the good start he had in the fine old home of his sturdy parents, Brother Coltrane availed himself of the best his section had to offer at the time in the way of education in its public schools. Already that section of the state, notably the two counties of Guilford and Randolph, had acquired a reputation for zeal in the matter of education, due in large measure to the presence and dominance of the Quakers there. Their leaven of enlightenment and spirituality gently and thoroughly pervaded that whole section, blessing other denominations as well as their own. New Garden Academy, with its fine record of more than 100 years, out of which came the present Guilford College, stood not far from where he first saw the light. That home of his—the building still standing—showed many characteristics of its Quaker contacts, notably these: plainness, piety, enlightenment and durability. It is very likely that the name he bore, Nereus, fine scripture name that it is, is another evidence of such contact—it being then and now a frequent one among the Friends of that section.

Brother Coltrane entered Trinity College, then under the presidency of Braxton Craven, in 1872, and was graduated from there in 1876 in the class with Hon. G. S. Bradshaw and Hon. W. G. Burkhead, both deceased, and Ex-lieutenant Governor W. D. Turner, who survives and who says of him he was a good student and was highly respected by the entire faculty and student body. In the class with him and graduating at the same time was also his own brother, Mr. S. G. Coltrane, still living

'neath the family roof-tree. In college with him, though not in his class, were both the senators from this state, Messrs. Simmons and Overman, the late Judge B. H. Palmer, of Florida, and the Late Dr. W. H. Pegram, of Duke University. Leaving college with his A.B. degree, which afterwards became A.M., he taught for a while at Hillsville, Va., and then went west, where for a year he was president of Marvin College at Oskaloosa, Kansas. Returning from the west after his short stay, he joined the N. C. Conference at its session in Salisbury in 1877, taking work therein at that time and continuing so to do without a break for 46 years until his superannuation in 1923. Following is a list of the charges he served: Wilkesboro, 1878-79; Mount Airy, 1880-81; Ruffin, 1882-85; Oxford, 1886-88; Pittsboro, 1889-92; Snow Hill, 1893; Mount Tirzah, 1894-95; Carr Church, 1896; Roxboro, 1897-1900; Rocky Mount, 1901; Kinston, 1902; Smithfield, 1903-05; Franklinton, 1906-09; Gibson, 1910-11; Mount Gilead, 1912-15; Carthage, 1916-19; Scotland Neck, 1920-21; Webb Avenue, Burlington, 1922-23. Such is the record of his life's work so far as dates and figures and names can supply such record. But more than these—more than this long, unbroken record of continuous service does or can indicate—we believe that the record of this, His faithful servant, is good and clean as seen by the eye of the Master who seeth not as man seeth. "What is done we partly may compute but know not what is resisted," but He knows. He knows all the trials incident to the life of his messengers abroad or at home, the frequent moves, the small salaries—oftener unpaid then than now; the care and education of children. Our brother had his share of all these and they are part of that record that is with Him whose bidding he ever strove to do. As a man, a citizen, a husband and father, his life was clean and above reproach. One who knew him long and well, himself an honored member of this conference, in a letter to this writer says of him: "I can subscribe to all you say or can say about his clean life and high Christian character." As a pastor and preacher he was among our most valuable men. One might not call him a great preacher. Doubtless he never thought of himself that way or ever aimed to be such. Rather he was like Andrew Bonar who said of himself, "I have never tried to be a great preacher or even wanted to be one, as the phrase goes. My ambition has been to stand at the well, to roll away the stone, to water the flock, and to send them home." No really thirsty soul ever heard our brother preach without being refreshed; no hungry one ever failed to be fed. His preaching was characterized by thought, spirituality, and adherence to the Word; also, it bore the impress of the closet as well as the study. As a pastor he was ever at it and ever helpful. This writer followed him in two pastorates, one of them after he had been gone 15 years, during which time several of our best men had served that charge. No one of them left deeper or more permanent tracks than N. E. Coltrane. More than one family there has reason to hold him, and will, in everlasting, affectionate remembrance. He moved among us quietly, unobtrusively, either on the conference floor or in the matter of his appointment. He believed all the while that God still had some measure of responsibility in the matter of his appointment and for him to interfere in any way might be to thwart that superior and better will of God. During his long membership in this conference, 53 years, than which only three living have seen a longer term, it is safe to say he had the respect and confidence of every single one and the love of those who were brought into closest touch with him. No Presiding Elder of his ever had occasion to put on the soft pedal. When in answering the routine question at conference, "Is there anything against him?" he said nothing against Brother Coltrane. Once his brethren honored him with a seat in the General Conference in 1914 at Oklahoma City. With that exception, none of what might be called the honors of the church ever came his way. But no one ever heard him express any disappointment or a wish that it had been otherwise. During his long experience as a Methodist itinerant in the active ministry he went just where, as it seemed to him, the hand of God and the superior knowledge of his brethren directed that he should, and when at four-score years the summons came to him—twenty-four hours before it came—he was in his Father's house and about his Father's business.

Brother Coltrane was happy in his married life. On December 20, 1877, he was married to Miss Ida Mae Gannaway, daughter of Professor and Mrs. W. T. Gannaway. No student at Old Trinity in Randolph can ever forget the home from which she came or the fine pair that made it. Who, that ever stood and trembled in his classroom, can ever forget that dear old gentleman, his erect bearing, his flowing beard, his resonant voice, his kindly eye behind the gold-rimmed glasses. "Old Sol" they called him but never by the wildest boy in ridicule or disrespect, but always as a term of real affection. It was out of this home of culture and piety that this good woman came to stand by the side of her preacher husband for more than 52 years, to make his home and to bless his work. She still lives at her residence, 1612 Spring Garden St., Greensboro, N. C. To them were born the following children who survive: Professor W. G. Coltrane, Greensboro, N. C. Dr. J. F. Coltrane, Zebulon, N. C.; Mrs. R. A. Merritt, Greensboro, N. C.; and Mrs. W. Kirkwood Gibson, Gibson, N. C. A daughter, Mrs. D. G. Ridenhour, of Mount Gilead, died in 1919, and a son, Dr. Wallace E. Coltrane, of Dunn, N. C., died in 1928.

ROBERT W. BAILEY

By Judge E. H. Cranmer

"Fast as the following seasons bring
The hour of fate to those we love,
Each pearl that leaves the broken string
Is set in friendship's crown above,
As narrower grows the earthly chain,
The circle widens in the sky;
These are our treasures that remain
But those are stars that beam on high."

"The circle in the sky" was widened on September 14, 1930, when Robert William Bailey was called to become a guest of God. His work here was finished and he "took ship for home." He was always faithful in much and his welcome home was: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

He was the son of John Price Bailey and Helen (Palmer) Bailey, and was born August 11, 1859, in Wake (now part of Durham County) County. His father was wounded in the Civil War and died from his wounds. His mother—frail in body, but brave and strong in spirit—educated her own and her neighbors' children. Her deep religious faith and her Christian life made a deep and lasting impression on many, including her own children. Robert William Bailey was converted, and joined the church early in life. As a boy he was so settled and quiet that the neighbors and his brother called him "Old Man." His college education was at Trinity College, now Duke University.

He was married to Miss Frances M. Cuninggim, August 2, 1888, at Chapel Hill. There were three children born to this happy union: Robert Cuninggim, who died at the age of 22; Palmer E., of Raleigh; and Jesse Lee, of Memphis, Tennessee.

He was admitted on trial to the conference at New Bern at the 1888 session, and was appointed to Clayton Circuit. This was one of the most successful years in soul-winning and spiritual uplift to his churches that he had during his ministry. In the latter part of this year he had a very severe attack of typhoid fever which left his throat in such condition his doctors advised him to stop preaching. He then was located for six years. At the conference in Durham in 1894 he was again admitted on trial and sent to West Durham where he served four years. His other appointments were: Southport, 1898-1900; Haw River Circuit, 1901-04; Siler City, 1905; Sanford, 1906-08; Louisburg, 1909-11; Warren Circuit, 1912-15; Garysburg Circuit, 1916-18; Roanoke Circuit, 1919.

He was superannuated because of continued ill health in 1920, and from then until his death lived in Raleigh, where he did not sever himself from the work of the church he loved so well, and, becoming affiliated with the Edenton Street Church and Sunday school, he was chosen teacher of the Norman Bible class. The members of his class will bear witness that he was one of the best Sunday school teachers in Raleigh. But this responsibility was but one of many that Brother Bailey sustained in connection with the church, he frequently being called on to officiate at church services, marriages, funerals, and other ceremonies. Up to the end he maintained a keen interest in the affairs of his church and his friends, during the weeks of his illness continually speaking well of those he knew and exalting honest and honorable living.

The following is taken from a letter written by Jesse Lee Bailey to his father, Rev. R. W. Bailey, upon his attaining the age of 71 years:

"On this occasion I would like to take the opportunity of saying some things that I am sure I have said to you before, but, perhaps, will bear repeating. I want you to know that I not only love you dearly, but that I honor and respect you above any man I know. Your honesty and straightforwardness is rivalled only by your gentle and Christ-like spirit. You have lived a long and faithful life, and have been instrumental in bringing benediction and peace to the hearts and minds of many people who were sorely distressed. The world is better for your having lived in it, and I am certain that the Father will say to you one day, 'Well done, good and faithful servant.' I want you to know that the example which you have given me has meant and will mean more to me than words can express."

Some impressions of his father created in the mind and heart of his son, Palmer E. Bailey, and written indelibly upon his memory:

"Ever since I can remember, my father proved himself, beyond all scintilla of a doubt, to be one of the kindest fathers and husbands I have ever seen or ever expect to see. One of the things I remember from my earliest childhood was the unusual and remarkable consideration for the wants and needs of his wife and children who were dependent upon him. He was a true husband and father to them in every aspect of the word, always putting their interests ahead of his own convenience. He realized fully the importance of educating his children, and to this end he readily, and without any complaint, denied himself of many pleasures he might have enjoyed in order that his children might have better educational advantages than his had been. One of the greatest ideals in this world is the aspiration to a life of unselfishness, and I unhesitatingly say that my father came as near living a life of absolute unselfishness as any man of whom I have ever heard, with the exception of Jesus and the saints. He was ever and anon ready and willing to deny himself in deference to his family. He nobly exemplified in his life the principle of 'In honor preferring one another.'

"There was another thing in his life which gives birth in my mind to as great an admiration for my father as it is possible for me to have for any man: He lived a life of absolute purity and cleanness. When I realize the uncleanness of the general run of men and the carelessness and disregard in which they hold the sanctity of womanhood, I am all the more impressed with the belief that a life of this character lived by any man is one of the noblest examples he can set for other men and one of the grandest heritages he can leave his children. I would not trade the heritage of goodness and righteousness which my father left me for millions or any material thing the world has to offer. It is a life which the general run of men have not the capacity to appreciate or comprehend, and they will never do so until they set up as their ideal this life of unselfishness, self-denial and purity. It is everlasting and eternal in the heavens.

"My father's love for my mother (his companion) was beautiful in the extreme. All through his ministry he depended upon her for help in his work, and in his last days he countless times expressed his gratitude for her wonderful help to him, and his love and admiration for her. She truly was faithful to him all through their lives together, and 'even unto death'."

He was a gentle man. "His life was gentle and the elements so mixed in him that nature might stand him up before all the world and say, 'Here is a man'." Deeply conscientious and painstaking in all his work, he followed the footsteps of his Master by going about doing good. He sought out the neglected, the needy, and carried the burdens of the people.

He was quiet and unassuming—not a self-seeker—and preferred others before himself.

During his ministry he had, under God, a large number of glorious revivals, the Spirit being greatly manifested in convicting and converting power.

No one can estimate the life of a man. The possibilities and the accomplishments of a human being cannot be estimated nor computed. Mankind can measure a star in the constellation of Orion, and plumb the deepest sea, gauge the force of the wind, compute the distance to the sun, but cannot resolve the life of a single human being into its parts, and tell the sum of the aggregate. The good accomplished by Robert William Bailey cannot be told. Every one who knew him, knew he was a good man, and that he was God's friend. Knew he was a Christian, and that he never lost an opportunity to speak a good word for Him, of whom it was said, "Thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins."

The days of the years of his life were full of good works.

On one of his charges on a wintry day, when the ground was covered with snow, he and his two small boys were observed chopping wood and carrying it to an old, feeble negro. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, my brethren."

Once, years ago, he spoke to one of his members quietly and gently, but oh so earnestly, about Christian giving that the member thenceforth began tithing, and still keeps it up.

And thus the years of his life were lived, nobly as befits a man, humbly as befits a Christian, faithfully as befits a follower of Jesus, charitably as befits a lover of God, and kindly as befits a lover of man.

July 19, 1930, he was stricken with his last illness, and when God called him, he passed from earth

"As sweetly as a child,
Whom neither thought disturbs
Nor care encumbers, tired
With long play, at close of Summer's day, lies down and Slumbers."

E. C. SELL

By Harry M. North

Rev. Eli Caleb Sell, the son of John P. and Julia Crowell Sell, was born in Stanley County, North Carolina, June 26, 1861, and died in Wilmington, October 13, 1930. He attended the Albemarle Academy, the Waynesville High School and the preparatory department of Trinity College. He entered the conference on trial at New Bern in 1888, and continued a member of it forty-one years. On December 21, 1892, he was married to Miss Annie R. Allen, daughter of the late Col. and Mrs. D. C. Allen, of Columbus County.

Brother Sell served the following charges in the order named: China Grove, Fayetteville Mission, Market Street, Wilmington; Williamston and Hamilton, Siler City, Dunn, Roseboro, Scotts Hill, Roberdel, Troy, Cumberland, Snow Hill, Bethel, Swan Quarter, Nashville, Trinity, Wilmington; Maysville, Epworth, Wilmington; Roxboro Circuit, Hallsboro, Goldston, Stedman, Maysville, Town Creek.

At the Kinston Conference in 1929, he took the superannuate relation and lived quietly with his family in Wilmington until his death. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie R. Sell; four sons, Allen M. and Emil, of Wilmington; I. E. Sell, of Norfolk; and Marvin M. Sell, of Lumberton; three daughters, Misses Katherine and Lora Sell and Mrs. J. C. Hardwick, all of Wilmington; a sister, Mrs. Mary Morris, of Chattanooga, and a brother, T. J. Sell, of Albemarle, N. C.

Among the prominent traits in the character of E. C. Sell were gentleness, sincerity and truthfulness. He was a Christian gentleman, possessed of a fine native grace which made him at home among the great of the community as well as the humble. He had many friends among all classes of people, and it was good to hear them greet him as he went upon the street. With modesty and rare self-control he moved in quiet dignity through the years. Brother Sell was a student with a poetical cast of mind, observing great care in preparing his sermons and delivering them with force.

Above all else stands out the purity of his character. It is no small thing that for sixty-nine years he should have lived a blameless life and that for forty-one years he kept the vows of his ministry. In contrast to the corruption of the period, his life stood out in striking whiteness. It is of great value to a community for a man of this sort just to live in it, for in his walk and conversation among men he bears a constant and powerful witness to the real things of the Gospel of Christ. No apology has to be made for this man; no dark places in his record to be covered up. Nobody thinks of asking how he died, for all know how he lived.

Loyal to the church and the ministry, he went with gladness to his work. Many hard places fell to his lot, yet he served them joyfully. At no time did he receive a large salary, still by economy and simple living he was able to rear a large family of children and to educate them without going into debt for it. Such an example is worth consideration in this extravagant age. The only regret which he expressed upon coming to the close of his day was that he could not preach at least once more. Like Whitefield, he was "Weary in the work, but not of the work."

In the life and death of this faithful preacher we see another triumph of the Gospel of Jesus; another victory of the spirit over the flesh and over the world. When men die it is the custom to ask what they were worth and what did they leave? In the case of Brother Sell these questions must be answered by the many who were saved under his long ministry; by the thousands who received comfort from him; by the family, the church and society where his gracious influence was felt. Gentleman, man of God, Christian minister: we salute you, and bid you farewell until we shall all meet in the Father's house.

EUGENE MALCOLM SNIPES

By W. A. Stanbury

Eugene Malcolm Snipes, the son of Alvis and Mary Snipes, was born in Chatham County, North Carolina, November 30, 1868. He was educated at the University of North Carolina, receiving his A.B. degree at that institution in 1894. Following his graduation from the university, he taught for three years at Bennettsville, S. C., and Charlotte, North Carolina. Having definitely decided to enter the ministry, he entered Vanderbilt University in 1897, studying there for three years.

He was admitted to the North Carolina Conference at its session held in Fayetteville in 1901. During his ministry he served the following appointments: Dunn, 1902-05; Burlington, 1906-09; Roxboro Circuit, 1910-13; Washington, 1914-17; Weldon District, Presiding Elder, 1918-1921; Oxford, 1922-25; Mt. Olive, 1926-29.

On February 15, 1906, he was married to Miss Daisy Randle in Durham, Dr. J. T. Gibbs, Presiding Elder at that time, officiating.

His health failed in the spring of 1929, he having preached his last sermon on the fourth Sunday in May of that year. From that time to his death he was, the greater portion of the time, confined to his bed, being a patient in Watts Hospital for about five months. He bore his suffering like a good soldier. There was no complaint, but only patience, lighted up by love and hope.

He died Sunday, November 16, 1930. Funeral services were conducted at Duke Memorial Church, Durham, N. C., by Dr. W. A. Stanbury, pastor of that church, assisted by Reverend L. C. Larkin, pastor of Branson Church, Reverend J. A. Russell, pastor of Carr Church, and Dr. S. B. Turrentine, president of Greensboro College.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Daisy Randle Snipes; one brother, W. S. Snipes, of Newton, N. C.; and one sister, Mrs. W. S. Womble, Winston-Salem, N. C.

As one endeavors to appraise the life of Brother Snipes, there are three elements in his character and make-up which suggest themselves immediately. First of all, he was a good preacher. He understood the heart of Christ's gospel. He spoke with a note of confidence and authority, but always with tenderness and understanding of the problems, sins, and hungers of human life. His sermons were the sort that find their way to men's hearts. There was a reason. He had the meat of the message of the Bible. He knew, like a good physician, what men needed to help them in their daily, average, and too often vexed and troubled lives. He loved people; his heart went out to them always. Thus his message went from the heart of a man who understood to the hearts of those who had their fight to make and their loads to carry. His preaching helped men to be better men, it encouraged them, it braced them up, it bound them to the eternal realities of God. It taught them to walk in the pathway of Jesus.

Then he was a good pastor, as any man has to be at heart who is really a good preacher. He made himself the friend of all the people, regardless of class, temporal circumstance or age. The homes of those who knew the physical comforts of life made him their welcome guest. The poor greeted him eagerly, trusted him, loved him because he showed himself able to understand their burdens, discouragements, and privations. He did not patronize them, he did not treat them as a class apart, but as human beings. Whoever was in trouble, whoever sought comfort, whoever was tempted, whoever was losing out in life's battle, whoever was successful and happy and prosperous, found him ready to respond out of a big heart and a ready comprehension. When death had visited one of the homes of his people, he was there to give words of healing and hope and to point the bereaved always to the great Source of comfort. Even better than his words were the warmth and strength of his personality; people felt that here was one who could and would stand by them; in him and his ministry they found suggestion of the strength and help of God. Young men and women in the tremulous joys of their betrothal, children in their trustful gaiety, youths uplifted by their yet undisciplined hopes, aged men and women coming to the evening time either in ripeness of Christian experience and joyful anticipation of better things farther on or in lack of the faith which makes men to be strong—all found him their friend, their shepherd, their hearty, wise, and gracious guide. Among the good pastors of this and all the conferences of our great church, he was for nearly thirty years one of the best.

It was because he was a good man* that he could be such a preacher and pastor as he was. He was genuine, there was nothing superficial, nothing of pretense about him. Sincere, earnest, true, he was a man. Burns observes that "an honest man's the noblest work of God." A man who is good, not because he has not vigor enough to be bad, but because he has in him the elements of a positive goodness, the goodness of good morals, good faith, great belief in a great God, and a good heart—than such a man surely there is no better work of God, nor can be.

To his brethren of the conference Eugene Snipes was a true and loyal brother and co-laborer. To his wife he was a devoted and tender husband. To the people of his pastorates he was a faithful, helpful and Christ-like shepherd. To all he was a noble and gracious Christian gentleman. To God he endeavored to be, and better by far than most of us, succeeded in being a trustful and obedient child. He was a good minister of Jesus Christ.

ELI FRANKLIN LEE

By J. C. Wooten

Eli Franklin Lee was the son of Arthur and Elizabeth Lee. He was born at Newton Grove, Sampson County, N. C., March 28, 1879. To the training received at the home school was added the special training of Turlington Institute at Smithfield, where he was prepared for entrance to college. September, 1900, Brother Lee entered Trinity College where he remained two years. The next year he was superintendent of East Durham Graded School and came back to college to graduate with the class of 1905. The years 1905-06 he was superintendent of schools at Plymouth, N. C. With a desire to better fit himself for his life's work, he entered Union Seminary and Columbia University. After two years he received the degree of Master of Arts from Columbia and the next year the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Union Seminary.

After his graduation from the seminary he accepted the position of assistant pastor of the Arlington Avenue Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, where he remained two years. His next pastorate was St. Albans, Long Island, 1909-12. Then he came back to North Carolina and was pastor at Buffalo Presbyterian Church at Greensboro from 1913-23. From this long and successful pastorate he joined the North Carolina Conference and was stationed at Beaufort, 1924-25; Kinston, 1926; Fayetteville, 1927-28; and from there he came to Calvary, Durham. His service here was short but acceptable. While bringing in a bucket of coal for the evening he was mortally wounded by some unknown assassin. He was taken immediately to the hospital where everything possible was done for him; but he died January 7, 1930.

A great number of his friends gathered at Duke Memorial Church for the funeral. Brother Lee was a good preacher, a kindly, spirited man, and a successful man. His stay among us seems all too short; but he wrought well and was considered among us as one of our good preachers.

His widow, who was Miss Elsie Barbee, and daughter, Lois, live in the Erwin Apartments, Durham, N. C.

MRS. Z. T. HARRISON

By Miss Sallie Benson

On the morning of July 23, at a hospital in Rocky Mount, after a lingering illness of several months, Mrs. Mary Johnson Harrison went to her eternal home.

The summons was not unexpected, nor unwelcome, for during the months that shadows of a physical—not a spiritual—nature had gathered about her, she seemed to realize more than anyone else that she was nearing the end of her journey and expressed her readiness and willingness to go.

Her only regret was the separation from her loved ones, of which there are four sons, one daughter, two step-sons, several grandchildren and one brother.

Her children are B. M. Harrison, of Raleigh; Z. T., B. F., and F. R. Harrison, of Winston-Salem; and Mrs. H. E. Benson, of Nashville, N. C., with whom she made her home. The step-sons are T. W. Harrison, of Wilmington, and Rev. E. N. Harrison, of Mount Olive.

She was born in Castalia, N. C., May 16, 1863, the daughter of Rev. Jeremiah Johnson and Mary Mitchel Johnson.

In 1877 she was married to Rev. Z. T. Harrison of the North Carolina Conference.

This godly pair walked and worked together through the years, rendering faithful service to the churches to which they were sent in the days when the hardships of the circuit-rider were much greater than they are now, but to which they went without a murmur.

Being left a widow while her children were young, she set about the task of rearing them with the same courage and fortitude that had characterized her itinerant life and succeeding in the same measure.

Sister Harrison was exact in her walk, gentle and patient in spirit; never growing away from the idea that there is a marked difference in the life of a Christian and a non-professing person; thus she exemplified in her daily life the graces of a Christian character.

She possessed a soul that was large, and a heart so sympathetic and kind that she was able to make and to retain friends.

When the cook, the gardener, the laundry woman stood by the casket and looked at the silent form, they said with others, "A good woman is gone." She was their friend. They, too, felt a personal loss. How could the value of her life be better expressed than by the words, "I loved Mrs. Harrison." In them is the summary of a life well lived.

In the light in which she had lived, in the shadow of the "Old Rugged Cross"—a favorite hymn—she closed her eyes to awaken in her mansion "not prepared with hands, eternal in the heavens."

"Faith sees the bright eternal doors
Unfold to make his children's way;
They shall be clothed with endless life,
And shine with everlasting day."

MRS. J. D. PEGRAM

By B. E. Stanfield

The measure of a life is not determined by the number of years lived nor by the opportunities or limitations of an individual. But it is by the good we do, the influence for righteousness we exert, and the lives we bless as we touch them here and there on the journey of life.

Measured by such a standard, Mrs. J. D. Pegram lived well and her life was a great success. And when the moorings that held the shore lines were cut, a great soul went out into the great eternity to be forever with God, whom she loved and whom she served.

Miss Annis W. Worthy was born near Jonesboro, then in Moore County, on October 15, 1863. She was the daughter of the late K. H. Worthy, who was for some time sheriff of his county and an honorable, upright Christian gentleman. His home was one of culture and refinement, and the atmosphere there was distinctly Christian. And all the children of this home bear living testimony to this influence by the lives they lived.

In the year 1896 she was happily married to Rev. J. D. Pegram, then an honored and beloved member of the North Carolina Conference. For several years she shared in the joys and privations of the Methodist itinerant's wife. Wherever she and her husband labored, there she left an influence for good that will abide, for the people loved her and she made the parsonage home a power for good and a tower of strength in righteousness. She was Brother Pegram's second wife. She was indeed the preacher's helpmeet.

In the year 1912 Brother Pegram was superannuated. They then came back to Jonesboro to spend their last days. And then they built their little love-nest for their home and settled down to wait as the evening shadows lengthened and for the sunset of life.

In 1915 Brother Pegram passed on to his reward and the tired, worn body was laid to rest in the little cemetery where many preachers and their families sleep.

Sister Pegram continued to live there until called home on July 5, 1930, after a lingering illness of several months. The following day the funeral rites were held by her pastor, Reverend I. T. Poole, assisted by Rev. L. H. Joyner, and she was placed beside her husband to wait the resurrection morn. A large congregation was present for the services.

In early life she was genuinely converted and joined the Methodist Church, and became one of the charter members of the Jonesboro Methodist Church. She was always very actively engaged in all kinds of church work and was never idle in the Master's cause. For a number of years she was chairman of the Board of Stewards and how hard and faithfully did she labor to see that all of the finances were paid in full.

For many years she was the efficient and capable teacher of the Woman's Bible class. She studied her Bible and out of the hidden treasures there and her own personal experience she taught this class the full and hidden riches of the life that is hidden with Christ.

Perhaps the greatest work of Sister Pegram and that which she loved most was the Woman's Missionary Society. When the society was organized in 1878 she became a charter member and in 1928 she received the Jubilee pin which she prized very highly, and rightly so. Mrs. W. S. Chaffin was the first president of this society and at her death several years ago Mrs. Pegram succeeded her and remained the president until death. She gave liberally and cheerfully of her time, her means and her prayer to missions and many will rise up in the day of accounts from the ends of the earth and thank God for her work.

So this good woman has gone from us but her works abide. The people loved her and trusted in her. Hypocrisy and deceit were unknown to her. She lived a plain, simple Christian life and we always knew where to find her on every moral and religious question. I was her pastor for four years and I can never know what she meant in my own life and how she helped me in my work.

She had only two sons: J. D. Pegram, of Jonesboro, and G. W. Pegram, of South Norfolk, Virginia. What a rich legacy they have in their precious mother. One brother, S. B. Worthy, and two sisters, Mrs. Belle Barnes and Mrs. D. M. Weatherly, survive.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

MRS. SUE D. SWINDELL

By T. McM. Grant

The glory of the sunset comes out of the beauty of the morning and afternoon; the delicious flavor of ripened fruit is determined by the many hours of plant life that have developed it; the graces of mature age are but the products of wise living in youth and middle life. If this be true, Mrs. Sue D. Swindell must have been a thoughtful and prudent young woman and a courageous and intelligent leader in middle life, for the beauties of her sunset told wonderful stories of what must have happened in her morning and afternoon of life. She came to the end with a poise and dignity that were born of righteous, intelligent and active living.

She had a faith that was reassuring and inspiring; it had its birthday in the devout home of her father and was cultivated amid the simple surroundings of a Methodist parsonage. The Lord had comforted her heart amid times of trouble and had guided her in triumphant tasks of the Kingdom. She knew what it meant to know the comfort of Christ and to win victories in His name. Her faith could not be hurt by physical suffering.

Her love for the church was most attractive and enduring. Her pioneer work in the field of missions tested her devotion but she found her affection by the strength of Christ sufficient for the challenge. The women of the North Carolina Conference owe her a great debt of gratitude for the loving service that she so unselfishly placed upon the altar of the church in promoting the work of the Woman's Missionary Society.

One of her fine graces that came out of her communion with Christ was her ability to be a friend. She knew how to encourage the weak, to forgive the erring and to tie all to her heart by the sincerity of her life. She had many friends in Wilson, North Carolina, where she spent her last days.

She died August 31, 1930. Her husband, Rev. F. D. Swindell, an honored member of the North Carolina Conference, died in 1909. She is survived by two sons, F. D. Swindell and Dr. C. L. Swindell. To these we extend our deepest sympathy.

MRS. J. B. MARTIN

By N. H. D. Wilson

Clara Angilin Scarborough, daughter of Michael and Mary Ann (Marsh) Scarborough, was born in Cornwall, Canada, April 16, 1838. In her early life the family moved across the St. Lawrence River and settled in Massena, New York. From her mother she learned skill in housewifery which was so valuable to her in later life. From her father, who combined school-teaching with farming and business, she got her first training in books. Her home was a Christian home, and throughout her long life she was true to its teachings.

In 1859, immediately after graduation from college, she came to North Carolina as a teacher. December 23, 1863, she was married to Rev. Joseph B. Martin, a member of the North Carolina Conference, at that time pastor of the Pittsboro Circuit. From Pittsboro they went to Snow Hill for three years but return to Pittsboro for three other years. In 1871 Brother Martin was sent to the Chapel Hill and Haw River Charge. In 1872 they purchased a home in Chapel Hill. Here they remained for many years. Brother Martin continued to serve as pastor but was assigned to charges which he could travel from Chapel Hill. After his superannuation, 1891, to his death, 1897, he lived there.

Owing to the necessities of a growing family and the meager support from the churches, it was necessary to supplement the salary in some way. This Mrs. Martin did by furnishing board and rooms to students of the university. Her industry, skill and thrift enabled her to give good board for the small price which was then customary and yet contribute materially to the support of the family. But her home was not a mere boarding house. To many it became a Christian home. They will rise up to call her blessed.

My connection with the family began years before I actually met them. Brother Martin was my father's friend. My brothers boarded there. My wife's childhood was closely linked with that of the Martin children across the narrow street. Through my college years and again while I was pastor of the church at Chapel Hill I had unceasing kindness from this busy but ever kind preacher's wife. Uncle Joe was a regular and sympathetic attendant on my youthful ministry, and it fell to me to complete and read his memoir which had been begun by Dr. Jesse A. Cuninggim, who was, through failing health, unable to finish his labor of love to his long-time comrade. I therefore speak with knowledge when I say that Mrs. Martin was a remarkable woman, worthy of highest honor.

She was the mother of seven daughters and one son. To them in early childhood she imparted the lessons of industry, thrift and skill, which she had practiced. Later on, by what must have been heroic sacrifice, she enabled them to secure college and university training. She wrought well. Her children have lived to do her honor. Mary (Mrs. Stephen B. Weeks), Hattie (Mrs. R. L. Uzzell) and Clara preceded her to the spirit world. Lizzie (Mrs. J. A. Morris), Ella (Mrs. Frank Page) and Blanche (Mrs. E. J. Matthews) and Joseph B., Jr., survive.

Though the tasks which her own home presented to her were enough to fill any woman's hands, she found time for much church and community work. She organized one of the earliest children's missionary societies. She was always present with her children at the church services. And wherever sickness, death or sorrow came, she was a ministering angel.

About 1901 she closed the old home at Chapel Hill and found a new home with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Page, at Aberdeen. For much of the last fifteen years she has been a sufferer and for most of them totally blind. To cross those busy hands in idleness and to sit in darkness was a great trial. But loving children did all that could be done for her and a Heavenly Comforter gave her peace. She ripened for eternity. The end came while she was for a time with her oldest living daughter, Mrs. J. A. Morris, in Granville County. She sleeps beside her husband and daughters in the quiet village cemetery in Chapel Hill where she had so often strewed flowers on new made graves. To her as truly as to her preacher husband we may say,

"Soldier of Christ, well done."

MRS. W. W. ROSE

By E. H. Davis

Mrs. Emma Foushee Rose, wife of the late Rev. W. W. Rose of the North Carolina Conference, died at her residence in Franklinton November 2, 1930. Her parents were William Franklin and Joanna Elizabeth Foushee of Chatham County, where she was born March 14, 1862. Her people and her home were of the best in that fine old county—a section ever dear to her; where her early years were spent; where in the quiet of the Methodist Church yard in Pittsboro the body of her sainted husband lies and by whose side she now sleeps to await the resurrection morn. She was married in 1877 to Rev. W. W. Rose—a widely useful, deservedly popular and well beloved Methodist itinerant. Few men among us in our day have wrought more faithfully and effectively than did he. Hardly one was a busier or a better pastor. Just how much of his faithfulness and effectiveness and deserved popularity was due to this good woman—widely cultured and thoroughly Christian—the Master of the vineyard only knows. She came into his home where were three children of a former marriage to whom she became a real mother, showing no difference as far as they themselves knew or any one outside could tell between them and the four who in God's providence came to bless her own union. It was an ideal Christian home and family that she made for God's servant; a real blessing to every community where it was her privilege to serve by his side. Wherever he labored, people were always sorry to see Will Rose leave after serving his four years—nearly always the length of his pastorate—and the sorrow was as much on her account as on his. In the work of the church as well as in the home she was thoroughly efficient. During her husband's lifetime she was his right hand and after his death no work of the Master called to her in vain. She was ever a friend to the pastor, especially when he came a stranger into the community. She never had one who, if surviving, does not this day join with her children and bless her memory.

There survive her, four sisters, viz: Mrs. G. A. Matton, of High Point, N. C., and Mrs. A. H. London, Mrs. James A. Thompson and Mrs. H. T. Chapin, of Pittsboro, and the following children: W. F. Rose, Franklinton; J. E. Rose, Richmond, Va.; L. L. Rose, Charlotte; and Mary Exum Rose, Franklinton. The children of the former marriage are: Mrs. H. M. Terrell, Raleigh, N. C.; R. J. Rose, Franklinton; and J. H. Rose, Greenville.

MRS. J. Y. OLD

By G. W. Perry

Lord, grant me, if Thou wilt, to slip away
As slips the night into the dawning gray,
So soft, the watchers watching, cannot say

Here ends the night and here begins the day!
But only know the night's His night, the day his day!

It was thus that the subject of this sketch, Agenora Ives Old, wife of Reverend J. Y. Old, for more than fifteen years an honored member of this conference, slipped from her home here, into the home above.

She was born in Norfolk County, Virginia, March 22, 1845, and passed away October 27, 1930. It was there, in Norfolk County, Virginia, that her girlhood was spent, and there in her young womanhood that she and Brother Old were married October 18, 1865.

Throughout the years of their happy married life, she was the constant companion, helper, and inspiration of her husband in his work as pastor and preacher in the two conferences he worked in—in the Virginia and the North Carolina—and during the years that have passed since her husband's translation, her interest in the church has been that of a devout Christian. She sought no place in the public life of the church and it was from her home that she exerted her great influence as wife, mother, and Christian neighbor.

For twenty-five years she was an invalid but she never ceased to have an abiding interest in the work of the church. She was unable to attend the services but she rejoiced to get the reports, brought by friends, of the activities in her church and conference. Her last conversation was with a Christian woman and she talked, at length, about the "last step" the servant of God had to take in order to be "forever with the Lord." After this conversation, with reference to her guarantee of the "abundant life," with Him, she soon became unconscious and quietly left us to live with the Lord forever.

The funeral service was conducted at her home in Elizabeth City October 28 by her pastor, Reverend G. W. Perry, assisted by Reverend O. W. Dowd, Presiding Elder of the Elizabeth City District. Following this service her body was placed by that of her husband in Hollywood cemetery beneath a profusion of flowers to await the resurrection morning.

Surviving are her three devoted sons, W. T. Old, of Norfolk, Va.; W. M. and L. E. Old, of Elizabeth City, N. C.

MRS. C. P. JEROME

By M. T. Plyler

Mother, teacher, church worker and community builder was Mrs. C. P. Jerome, who went to heaven November 26, 1929. As the wife of a Methodist itinerant preacher, she lived in many communities, in all of which she made a distinct contribution to the welfare and uplift of the people. Her interest in the Sunday school and general church work continued to the end, she holding her Sunday school class and office in the missionary society until two weeks of her death. For 46 years, whenever other duties would permit, she taught school in the section in which she happened to be. As mother of eleven children, two dying in infancy, she displayed a tender care, deep solicitude and sacrificial love that won the admiration of all. Her efforts were not in vain.

The five girls and four boys of the family are all married and have cherished homes of their own, except Robert, who is finishing his theological training at Union. He is a member of the North Carolina Conference, of which his father has been a member for 46 years. What a rich heritage these nine children and the 20 grandchildren have in the legacy left by this devoted mother and grandmother! She showed them God from day to day and she made belief in human goodness easier for all who came to know her. A crown of life belongs to all such.

Mrs. Jerome was the daughter of Abner and Hannah Blair Gray of Randolph County, N. C., having been born November 9, 1861. Her education was largely under the tutorage of Professor Johnson of Old Trinity. She herself began teaching at the age of 19.

She married Rev. C. P. Jerome December 27, 1882. The children are: J. T. Jerome, Goldsboro; W. G. Jerome, Winston-Salem; Mrs. E. S. Bowers, Jackson, N. C.; Fred D. Jerome, Shreveport, La.; Mrs. R. K. Herring, Goldsboro; Mrs. P. G. Parker, Mrs. W. P. Holt, Jr., Erwin, N. C.; Mrs. R. C. Rapp, Thomasville, and Rev. R. L. Jerome, Union Theological Seminary, N. Y.

Friends and loved ones many, and flowers in abundance were in St. Paul's Church, Goldsboro, the afternoon in which we gathered to do honor to this dear mother and servant of God who had made such a wonderful contribution to her day and generation. It was an hour of victory. The long, weary journey from parsonage to parsonage made by father and mother and children—though often the roads were rough and salary small—had ended triumphantly. A radiant glow crowned the sunset. Rev. M. T. Plyler, assisted by Rev. W. V. McRae, Rev. J. G. Phillips and Rev. A. S. Barnes, conducted the funeral service.

On November 27 the sun went down on that grave in Goldsboro, but the influence of that life deepens and widens with the years—eternity measures its sweep.

MRS. M. C. THOMAS

By Marvin Y. Self

Henrietta Lea was born at Boydton, Virginia, May 24, 1840. On December 12, 1929, she quietly slipped away to join her loved ones on the other shore. She was the daughter of Rev. Solomon Lea and his wife, who was Miss Sophia Angier, of London, England. Henrietta Lea was educated at Sommerville Institute, Leasburg, North Carolina. This was an excellent school, and was conducted by her father prior to the Civil War. On June 16, 1858, she became the wife of Rev. M. C. Thomas of the North Carolina Conference, and for fifty-five years shared with him the hardships, the toils and the joys of an itinerant and superannuated preacher. Ten children blessed this union. Two daughters survive: Mrs. W. S. Dixon, Mebane, N. C., and Mrs. M. H. Moore, Weaverville, N. C., the wife of Rev. M. H. Moore, a superannuated member of the Missouri Conference.

Often the clouds hung heavily over the life of Mrs. Thomas. She followed her husband and eight children to the silent city of the dead. Some of these children had reached mature years. Truly she could say, "I walk through the valley of the shadow of death"; and just as truly she could say, "Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." Sorrow sweetened her life.

"David's song had ne'er been sung
If grief his heart had never rung."

Mrs. Thomas was frail in body, but she was mentally alert and, to the last, possessed a keen interest in all of the programs of her church. It was her greatest joy to attend the services and to read the literature of her church. She considered her contributions to the Woman's Missionary Society a real privilege. The Henrietta Thomas Missionary Society of Clayton, N. C., perpetuates her memory, and is a testimony to her faithfulness. Those who knew her best were impressed with her abiding faith in God. In tender affection she was known as "Mother Thomas."

Her body rests by her husband in the Leasburg cemetery.

"The saints of God, their wanderings done,
No more their weary course they run;
No more they faint, no more they fall;
No foes oppress, no fears appall.
O happy saints, forever blest
In that dear home, how sweet your rest."

MRS. MARY BUIE THOMPSON

November 13, 1848—May 14, 1930

By W. V. McRae

Winter had passed and springtime had again brought the glad beauty of leaf and blossom to our world when on May 14 the saintly life of Mary Buie Thompson slipped earth's wintry enfoldments and blossomed forth into eternal beauty.

Sister Thompson was born in Prattville, Alabama, the daughter of Rev. John Buie and Jane Eccles Buie of Fayetteville, North Carolina. In her early childhood the family returned to Fayetteville, in and around which most of her girlhood days were spent, and near which town, when but a girl, she joined the Methodist Church at old St. Andrews.

Reared in the home of a minister it was most fitting that she should be the wife of one and make for him a home. Thus it was that on July 11, 1882 she was married to the late Rev. J. E. Thompson, and to them were born two sons, Albert Lee and Gerald Buie.

For twenty-two years Sister Thompson lived the highly privileged life of the itineracy, serving with her husband Clinton, Buckhorn, Snow Hill, Jonesboro, Mt. Gilead, Aberdeen and St. John, Goldsboro.

There were five children in the home when she married. For these and her two boys and for their education she lived and toiled, often at great sacrifice. Yet she "Looked well to the ways of her household and her children arise up and call her blessed."

At the close of their pastorate in St. John, Goldsboro, Brother Thompson superannuated. For ten years they were in their own home in Aberdeen, then in 1913 they went to live with Albert Lee in Fayetteville, and there Brother Thompson died and was buried in Cross Creek Cemetery.

For ten years she was a member of Hay Street in Fayetteville and then for several years the benediction of her presence was given to the homes of the different children.

Of all books the Bible was her great companion. She lived with it and in it. Its old, old story was her joy. Its blessed promises were her hope. Its Christ was her living Lord, "Whom," though, "Having not seen, she loved." Her chief desire was to be ready to meet Him, and for his coming she constantly watched. In her latter years the Book and the North Carolina Christian Advocate were almost her whole reading.

Loyal to her Lord and Father, she was also loyal to all of God's children and ever held them as her heart's concern. Blessed with health she actively ministered to others in the good things of her Father's house till shortly before He called her home.

For five months before that blessed summons she suffered from a fractured hip. Tender hands and loving care were her portion now as always.

But all the loved ones here could not hold her; for, for her the Golden Bells were ringing and the stronger bands of love were drawing her into the presence of Him to whom so long she had joyously listened and so long wished to see. That summons came to her at the home of one of the step-daughters, Mrs. Archie McLaughlin, near Gastonia, North Carolina, and her burial was by her husband and her father and sister in Cross Creek Cemetery in Fayetteville.

Great was the number of her friends in this and other States. The many flowers at her funeral spoke eloquently of their number and of their loving regard for her. There Dr. N. H. D. Wilson read her favorite Poem: "Sunset and Evening Star," and Mrs. James Poe sang her favorite song: "When They Ring Those Golden Bells."

Rejoicing always in her but mourning her departure are her two sons, Albert Lee Thompson, Greensboro, North Carolina, and Gerald Buie Thompson, Big Springs, Texas, and the following step-children, J. E. Thompson, Hamlet, North Carolina, Mrs. Archie McLaughlin, Gastonia, North Carolina; Mrs. W. C. Kinsland, Weaverville, North Carolina; and Mrs. A. M. Norton, Boone, North Carolina. Another step-daughter, Mrs. S. E. Mercer, preceded her.

Beautiful in her life, lovely in her death it can only be proper to close this tribute with those fairer words which she so much loved.

"Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For tho' from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar."

SESSIONS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference in May, 1836, and in 1850, and again in 1870, North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this Conference. In 1890 North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, except that beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and the Conference was divided into the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In 1894 the remaining North Carolina territory in the Virginia Conference was transferred to the North Carolina Conference.
